

The Baptist Record

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE MISSISSIPPI BAPTIST CONVENTION

Published Weekly Since 1877

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, THURSDAY, JULY 29, 1965

Volume LXXXVI, Number 29

THOSE PRESENT for the Executive Committee meeting when building plans were initiated, were, from left, seated: Rev. Joseph Triplett, Newton; Dr. T. R. McKibbens, Laurel; Rev. O. B. Beverly, Woodville; A. L. Nelson, business manager; Dr. Chester L. Quarles, executive secretary-treasurer; Dr. W. Douglas Hudgins, Jackson, chairman; Rev. D. C. Applegate, Starkville. Standing: Rev. Harold Jones, Vicksburg; Dr. Bob Ramsay, Brookhaven; Dr. Clyde Bryan Hattiesburg, and Glenn Perry, Philadelphia, the latter two being members of the advisory committee.

Convention Building Plans Begun

PERSONAL WITNESSING TO HAVE CORRELATED EMPHASIS IN '66

NASHVILLE — It happened not long ago during a regular monthly meeting of the educational organizations of the Sunday School Board, Woman's Missionary Union and the Brotherhood Commission.

A request from the division of evangelism of the Home Mission Board suggested that the 1965-66 emphasis on "A Church Fulfilling Its Mission through Proclamation and Witness" should be correlated.

For almost a year the educational organizations of the convention have been meeting periodically to discuss correlation of all programs, plans and efforts.

The dream of correlation for the 1965-66 emphasis has become a reality. Each program organization has prepared materials and resources in relationship to an overall strategy developed jointly.

These suggestions are contained in the "Evangelism Plan Book," designed to help the pastor lead the entire church membership in preparation for, and participation in, the year of proclamation and witness.

It is available from the division of evangelism, also, guidance is available in Church Program Guidebook 1965-66, available from Baptist Book Stores.

The main thrust of this emphasis will be from January through May 1966, a five-month period to be coordinated under the heading "Every Christian a Witness Now."

The need for such an emphasis has been expressed by Dr. Arthur B. Rutledge, executive secretary-treasurer of the Home Mission Board, who said, "Within the United States of America more than 70 million persons are 'unchurched'."

The number without any meaningful personal relationship with Christ must be much larger."

Sullivan Speaks

Dr. James L. Sullivan, executive secretary - treasurer of the Sunday School Board, said "If this total effort by our denomination is bathed with prayer and if Southern Baptists will fully commit themselves to God, the coming year can be one of unparalleled advance."

"The growth that has characterized Southern Baptist churches and members must continue," said Miss Alma

(Continued on Page 2)

Initial steps have been taken toward the early construction of a new Mississippi Baptist Convention Building at the corner of North President and Mississippi Streets in Jackson when architects for the project were selected.

The associated firms of T. N. Touchstone, Jr. and B. H. Biggers, in Jackson, Architects and Engineers, were designated by the Executive Committee of the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board in a meeting at the Baptist Building last week. It was announced by Dr. W. Douglas Hudgins, Jackson, chairman.

Present were: Dr. T. R. McKibbens, Laurel, president of the board; Rev. Joe N. Triplett, Newton; Rev. D. C. Applegate, Starkville; Rev. O. B. Beverly, Woodville; Dr. Bob Ramsay, Brookhaven; Rev. Harold Jones, Vicksburg; Dr. Hudgins and Dr. Earl Kelly, Holly Springs, president of the State Convention.

Dr. Chester L. Quarles, Executive Secretary - treasurer and A. L. Nelson, business manager of the Board, also attended. Dr. Clyde C. Bryan, Hattiesburg and Glenn Perry, Philadelphia, members of the advisory committee of the Executive Committee, also were present.

Not present were W. P. McMullan, Sr., Jackson, member of advisory committee and Rev. N. F. Greer, Quitman and Rev. Tom Dunlap, Natchez, members of the Executive Committee.

Building Committee Set

Dr. Hudgins, Mr. Triplett and Dr. Ramsay, as members of the business and advisory sub-committee, will serve with Dr. Quarles and Mr. Nelson as the building committee.

Although no decision has been made concerning size of the proposed structure, or the number of floors to be erected, the Executive Committee anticipates a building designed for flexibility and

(Continued on Page 2)

CLARKE SETS TWO-FOR-ONE CAMPAIGN

An interested friend of Clarke College, Newton, has agreed to match, dollar-for-dollar, every contribution made to the college's student loan fund during August, up to a possible $15,000 total maximum.

Dr. Lowrey Compere, president, in making the announcement, said that any person during the month could give, in effect, two dollars for each dollar contribution.

If Mississippi Baptist friends would rally and give up to $15,000 during the month, the Clarke loan fund would benefit by $30,000 he continued.

Dr. Compere said that the student loan fund, which amounted to $23,579.73 last year, is down to about $1,000 now.

"This was occasioned," Dr. Compere pointed out, "because the college refused to sign the Federal assurance of

(Continued on Page 2)

FMB Enlarges Work Program

RICHMOND, Va. — Forty-five persons and one country were added to the Southern Baptist overseas mission program during the July meeting of the Foreign Mission Board. This brings the total overseas staff to 2,033, under assignment to 57 countries.

Twenty-nine persons were appointed for career mission service and four were reappointed, bringing the total in that category to 1,932. Twelve were employed for limited periods of service, giving the Board 101 persons with short-term status.

The newest area of mission assignment is Libya, in North Africa, added when the Board employed Rev. and Mrs. Harold L. Blankenship, of Hickory, N. C., for a four-year term as missionary associates in English-language work there. Mr. Blankenship will be pastor of First Baptist Church, Tripoli.

This three-year-old church is the only Baptist church between Melilla, on the Moroccan coast, and Egypt. Dr. John D. Hughey, secretary for Europe and the Middle East, told the Board. Its aim is to reach as many as possible of the 10,000 English-speaking civilians and the thousands of American military personnel stationed in Libya. Approximately a third of the 200 church members are with the military; most of the rest are with oil companies.

"The Tripoli congregation has also gone on record as being ready to support any work the Muslim Libyan population should the opportunity present itself," Dr. Hughey said.

Tells of Volunteers

Dr. Baker J. Cauthen, executive secretary, told the Board that response of missionary volunteers, growth of missionary giving, and a deepening concern for a greater world task give "every reason to believe that Southern Baptists are girding themselves for a larger undertaking on a world scale in the remaining decades of this challenging and perilous century."

Dr. Winston Crawley, secretary for the Orient, expressed appreciation in his report for mature national Christians around the world. "One of the

(Continued on Page 2)

Churches Aided By U. S. Act

WASHINGTON (BP) — An attempt to bar church groups from participating in the anti-poverty programs was defeated as the U. S. House of Representatives passed amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

Rep. John H. Buchanan, Jr. (R., Ala.), a Baptist minister, offered an amendment during floor debate on the anti-poverty bill which would prohibit grants to or contracts with "any church or other religious body" under the community action programs.

The amendment was aimed primarily at "headstart projects," a pre-school program for children of low-income families. Buchanan stated that 86 grants have been made to "public corporations formed by churches and church implemented programs."

Buchanan said he understood that the grants were not made directly to churches but to public corporations formed by the churches. Nevertheless, he said he considered such projects a "dangerous precedent" and a "clear violation of the first amendment" to the U. S. Constitution.

The House passed the anti-poverty amendments bill in a roll call vote of 245 to 158. It would double the funds already provided for the war on poverty. The bill now goes to the Senate where observers do not expect it to meet serious difficulties.

Speaking against Buchanan's church amendment, Rep. James G. O'Hara (D., Mich.) said that participation of a church-related organization in the anti-poverty programs does not mean "support of a religious activity or a church activity in any sense."

"We are talking about government using services provided under an agreement with a religiously oriented, or a religious organization or group to do the work of the poverty program in those instances where the church-related group is best able to do that work, or, indeed, is uniquely qualified and able to do that work," O'Hara said.

Rep. John W. McCormack (D., Mass.) speaker of the House of Representatives, (Continued from page 2)

First Convention Church Started In N. Y.'s Bronx

NEW YORK (BP) — The first Southern Baptist affiliated church, Evangelical Baptist, was organized in the Bronx, a Borough of New York City, July 9.

The church, a chapel of the First Baptist Church of Brooklyn, held its organization services on the second floor of a Jewish synagogue which it hopes to buy later.

Organized with 48 charter members and four awaiting baptism, the church called Lloyd Rose, who began the work as a Bible class five years ago, as its pastor.

Pastor D. A. Morgan of the mother church, said this was the first of the four chapels of the Brooklyn congregation to become a church.

He said they also sponsored another chapel in Harlem, a French-speaking chapel in the heart of Brooklyn, and a chapel of West Indians meeting in the Bronx.

MC Student Loan Fund Tops $80,000

Over $80,000 has been contributed to the Mississippi College Student Loan Fund, school officials announced today.

Dr. F. D. Hewitt, Jr., coordinator for the special fund drive, released the total today as the college administration was making preparations for the opening of the 140th session in September.

According to Dr. Hewitt, about $55,000 of the total amount was received by the college during an initial newspaper appeal which came following announcement that the institution's Board of Trustees had refused to sign the federal compliance pledge as outlined in the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

By taking a negative stand toward the compliance pledge, the college forfeited over $200,000 in National Defense Student Loans which it had been administering for several years.

The college immediately announced that it had established its own Mississippi College Student Loan Program and would continue to provide financial assistance to worthy and deserving students.

After receiving the $55,000 in gifts from the newspaper appeal, several friends of the college offered to mail out 75,000 letters to various persons throughout the state and nation in an effort to push the amount closer to the needed $200,000 goal.

Response gratifying
Response to the bulk mailing has been gratifying, according to Dr. Hewitt, and over 3600 letters have been received in the past three weeks containing checks amounting to over $25,000.

The largest amount received in any one day was 688 checks, but the incoming mail has now tapered off to approximately 50 per day, Dr. Hewitt reported.

Despite the encouraging response, the administrators of the student loan fund indicate that the desired $200,000 must be reached if the college is to continue to provide financial assistance to those in need.

Persons who have not yet contributed to the loan fund and who wish to do so, may send their checks to Mississippi College Student Loan Fund, P. O. Box 27, Clinton, Mississippi.

(Continued on Page 2)

Four Major August Events Planned For Gulfshore

The 1965 summer schedule of events at Gulfshore Baptist Assembly will come to a close August 20-21 with the State Brotherhood Encampment.

Four major events are slated for the final month of August—the third and final Training Union Week, 2-7; Laymen and Leaders' Music Week, 9-14; Gulfshore Bible Conference, 16-20 and then the Brotherhood Encampment, 20-21.

Dr. Gordon Clinard, professor of preaching at Southwestern Seminary, Ft. Worth, will be the featured evening speaker during the Training Union Week, according to Kermit S. King, director.

Song leader will be Vernon Polk, minister of music of First Church in Biloxi, with Mrs. Clyde Bryan, Hattiesburg at the organ and Mrs.

Ruth Stanford of Greenville to serve as pianist.

Fellowship director will be Dan Dipert of the First Church in Arlington, Texas. (Continued on Page 2)

Dr. Gordon Clinard Training Union

Dr. T. W. Dean Church Music

Dr. Earl Kelly
Bible

Lucien Coleman Brotherhood

Baptists In Laubach Literacy Mission

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (BP)—Thirty U. S. Christians, including four southern Baptists, have joined world literacy leader, Frank C. Laubach of Syracuse for a two-week literacy mission to Kenya, Africa.

The Kenya Literacy Mission July 15-Aug. 2, sponsored by Laubach Literacy, Inc., will seek to demonstrate literacy as an effective missionary tool.

Laubach, now 80 years old, pioneered world literacy through his "One-Teach-One" method successfully used in 312 languages in 103 countries.

He predicts the day will come when the churches will look back to Kenya in 1965 as a significant break-through in literacy evangelism.

In Kenya, a Texas-size African country which gained its independence from England in 1963, the literacy visitors will have a three-day orientation, work with missionaries and literacy workers for five days, then meet for three regional critiques, and finally spend another five days in the field.

To Share Training
Laubach feels the time has come, not only to take literacy to the newly-emerging nation, but also the spirit of Christianity.

His hope is that following the overseas phase, these 30 participants will share their training and experience in helping others see the effectiveness of literacy as a tool of evangelism.

The Southern Baptists taking part in the Kenya literacy mission represent varied interests in the denomination:

Miss Blankenship is a literacy field worker for the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, and her literacy training includes work at the Koinonia Foundation in Baltimore.

Caudill, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Memphis, is a former president of the Foundation for World Literacy.

Malone, a former pastor and chaplain, is executive director of the tarrant literacy association in Fort Worth.

Shepard, a student at Golden Gate Baptist Seminary, is a correctional officer and group counselor at San Quentin Prison, San Quentin, Calif.

It Was Huey Moak - Not O. C. Ladnier

The cutlines under the picture on page one last week describing participants at one of the Rural Pastors' Conferences erroneously identified one man as Rev. O. C. Ladnier of McComb.

It should have been Rev. Huey Moak, also of McComb. The Baptist Record regrets the error and is glad to make correction.

Personal -

(Continued from Page 1)
Hunt, executive secretary, Woman's Missionary Union.

"Nothing can stimulate this growth more than a renewal of the witnessing commitment of each church and each church member."

Dr. Wayne Dehoney, president of the Southern Baptist Convention has emphasized the need for churches to stress personal witnessing. "Christianity conquered the civilized world in three centuries when the 'scattered ones went witnessing.'"

"A hostile, materialistic, sin-ridden world can never block the momentum of the gospel when every Christian becomes a witness."

Again, today, to win this world to Jesus Christ, we must mobilize the total resources of 10.5 million Baptists calling for every Christian to be a witness now!"

Convention -

(Continued from Page 1)
expansion of Convention activities, and marked by the most modern construction, mechanical and electrical methods and materials, according to Dr. Hudgins.

Property on which the new building will be erected was purchased by the Convention several years ago.

Members of the Executive Committee anticipate that approximately three months will be consumed in preliminary studies and drawings before actual planning begins.

Clarke Sets -

(Continued from Page 1)
compliance and the National Defense Education Loan fund money has been cut off."

Approximately 50 students have been assisted each year and a minimum of $20,000 will be needed this coming year to meet the needs of the students, he continued.

The need is urgent, Dr. Compere said, and individual Mississippi Baptists and groups and organizations and other friends are urged to send their contributions in now.

Those making these unusual two dollars-for-one contributions during August are asked to send their gifts to Clarke College Student Loan Fund, P. O. Box 440, Newton, Miss.

Attention is called to a display advertisement on page three of this week's issue.

In the SBC Brotherhood Commission.

State speakers will include Rev. Schuyler Batson, pastor First Church, Biloxi; Rev. Tom Dunlap, pastor First Church, Natchez; and M. D. Reagan, Carthage layman.

One of the highlights will be a Royal Ambassador recognition service Saturday morning under direction of Norman Godfrey of the Brotherhood Commission.

Music director will be Adam Ortiz of Meridian.

BAPTIST TRAINING UNION ASSEMBLY, GULFSHORE, 1965

PICTURED ABOVE are David Anderson of First Church, Starkville, and Miss Judy Johnson, of First Church, Corinth, as they reigned over their court during the first of three Training Union assemblies at Gulfshore, last week. This was the largest full-week program ever to be held at Gulfshore with a registration of 562. The speaker for the week is pictured on front row left, Dr. Harold D. Tallant of First Church, Daytona Beach, Florida; and the song leader on front row right, Charles Muller, Woodland Hills Church, Jackson. Of the 72 persons who made decisions in the Friday evening service, 15 were on profession of faith.

BAPTIST EXPERT REJECTS 'VATICAN ENVOY' RUMORS

WASHINGTON, D.C. (RNS)—Recurrent rumors that President Johnson plans to name a U. S. envoy to the Vatican have been rejected as lacking "the earmarks of credence" by a Baptist expert in the field of church-state separation.

C. Emmanuel Carlson, executive director of the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs, dismissed the rumors in Report from the Capital, a bulletin published 10 times annually by the Baptist agency.

In reporting Mr. Carlson's analysis, the publication said that "rumors that the appointment of an ambassador of the United States to the Vatican is imminent, have no basis in fact, according to findings of a careful investigation at reliable sources in Washington."

The Baptist committee's journal said that United Press International reported and "other reliable sources" confirmed that the Administration did not plan a Vatican envoy.

It said that speculation began April 8 when James Reston, influential political columnist for The New York Times, suggested appointment of an Ambassador to the Vatican. The visit of Henry Cabot Lodge with Pope Paul VI added impetus to the rumor, the journal added.

FMB Enlarges -

(Continued from Page 1)

very finest signs of progress and maturity in mission work is the number and strength of indigenous Baptist leaders," he said. "Taking a 10-year period for purposes of easy comparison, we note that our missionary staff in the Orient has increased by 100 percent, while at the same time the number of national leaders reported in church-related vocations has increased approximately 190 percent and the number of ordained ministers a quite remarkable 250 percent."

"We often find ourselves wishing there could be some quick shortcut to mature leadership—some machine on which specifications might be punched and the needed leader cranked out. Experience shows that leaders grow through a spiritual process which cannot be fully controlled and which is difficult to hasten."

Churches Aided -

(Continued from Page 1)

called the amendment "unwise and unnecessary." He said the only question of church-state separation involved in this issue was that injected into it by the proposed amendment.

Has Guidelines
McCormack said that "missionary minded people" should be involved in the anti-poverty program. He stated, however, that involving missionary minded people did not pose a question of violation of church-state separation.

The Office of Economic Opportunity has a set of official guidelines for the special conditions existing when a community action component program is delegated to a church or church-related organization. These guidelines prohibit the use of federal funds for teaching religion, for religious worship, or promotion of a church program in any way.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (POAU)—Rep. John H. Buchanan Jr. (R. Ala.) told members of the House of Representatives here that the principle of church-state separation "is being violated now" in the administration of the Economic Opportunity Act.

During debate July 21 on an amendment he proposed to the Act, he said: "The separation of church and state is basic to religious liberty in this country. It is being violated now."

Mr. Buchanan's amendment would have provided that "...the Director (of the Office of Economic Opportunity) shall make no grant to, and shall not contract with, any church or other religious body." It was defeated by vote of the House.

Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner" and one of the first vice presidents of the American Bible Society, predicted that Christian converts from godless countries would one day attend the Society's Anniversary Meetings. Japan, which in 1962 was host to the United Bible Societies, will attend their next Triennial Meeting in New York in May 1966 in connection with the 150th Anniversary of the American Bible Society.

BAYLOR TRUSTEES GRAPPLE WITH "DORMITORY CRISIS"

WACO, Tex. (BP)—Baylor University trustees grappled with a crisis in dormitory space and authorized appointment of a committee to make plans for future student housing in the face of uncertainty on how it would be financed.

Earlier, trustees of Baylor, Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Tex.; and Howard Payne College, Brownwood, Tex., had voted to ask the Baptist General Convention of Texas to remove a restriction that forbids the schools from accepting federal loans to finance such self-liquidating projects.

Baylor president Abner McCall, who is also president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, reportedly told the board meeting here that the issue would be a major controversy at the next State Baptist Convention in Houston next November.

McCall said that University officials are squeezing students into every possible space for the fall term but still do not have the problem solved.

Half of the two-hour trustee session was taken up with discussions on prospects for removal of the loan restriction by the convention.

Trustees also authorized McCall to apply for a permit to construct and operate a non-commercial educational FM broadcasting station on the campus.

Reports were given on building and construction projects at the Waco Campuses, and plans were announced for opening branch development offices to raise funds in Houston and Dallas.

Loan Question Argued

Most of the meeting was spent, however, in discussion of the federal loan question. In 1961 the Baptist General Convention of Texas adopted a committee report on separation of church and state asking the institutions to quit accepting federal loans.

The issue is whether or not such loans violate the traditional Baptist stand for separation of church and state.

Baylor president, and convention president McCall says there is no violation. Editorials in the Baptist Standard, official publication of the Convention, by E. S. James, however, have opposed McCall's viewpoints and criticized his stand.

McCall told the trustees here that the need for more student housing will continue to grow even with enrollment held at its present level. More students now prefer to live in the dormitories and fewer students are leaving school after their initial admission, McCall said.

Dr. Ramsay

To Study Baptist Life In Russia

Dr. Bob Ramsay, pastor of First Church, Brookhaven, Dr. Kermit Canterbury, pastor, Griffith Memorial Church, Jackson, will accompany Dr. W. O. Vaught of Little Rock, Arkansas, Dr. W. A. Criswell of Dallas, Texas, and Dr. J. B. White of West Monroe, Louisiana on a preaching mission to Russia, leaving the States August 2.

The group will be preaching in London, England; Edinburgh, Scotland; Oslo, Norway; Stockholm, Sweden; and Helsinki, Finland on their way to Russia. Interested in making a depth study of Baptist life in Russia, they will be in the Moscow Baptist Church, the Leningrad Baptist Church, the Odessa Baptist Church, and the Baptist church at Karachov.

Dr. Ramsay will preach at Bloomsbury, London, on the morning of August 8, and at Spurgeon's Tabernacle, London, on the evening of August 8. He will be writing travelogues for the Baptist Record. Dr. Canterbury will preach at Spurgeon's Tabernacle, London, Sunday morning, August 8, and at Oslo, Norway, on August 15. One highlight of the trip will be the observance of the twentieth anniversary of V-J Day in London. Dr. Canterbury, former chaplain with the 82nd Airborne Division, recalls this unique experience.

GABRIEL ON 1965 CHRISTMAS STAMP—WASHINGTON, D. C.—The 1965 Christmas stamp to be issued by the U. S. Post Office will have a religious motif for the first time in four years. It depicts a weathervane watercolor reproduction of the Angel Gabriel blowing his trumpet. The stamp is shown here against the background of the People's Methodist church in Newburyport, Mass., from whose steeple the design was taken. The church's Gabriel lost his horn during a storm a few years ago, but it will be restored this Summer during renovation work.—RNS photo.

REV. TOM HAGGAI, who will be the evangelist for the Greater Jackson Youth Crusade, Aug. 22-27 made a visit to Jackson last week to confer with local leaders. From left: Mr. Haggai; Dr. Andrew Gallman, director of evangelism for the Jackson area of the Methodist Church; Mrs. R. C. Alexander, Jackson, chairman of the steering committee; Dr. Chester L. Quarles, Jackson, executive secretary of the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board and Rev. Thomas Kay, pastor Westminster Presbyterian Church, Jackson.

D. H. Guyton

BMC Appoints Business Manager

D. H. Guyton, Blue Mountain has assumed his official duties as business manager of Blue Mountain College, by appointment of the Board of Trustees.

He succeeds Dr. J. E. Buchanan, also of Blue Mountain, who served for 39 years in that capacity, and is now serving as executive vice-president of the college.

Mr. Guyton, the newly appointed business manager, is a native of Blue Mountain. He received his educational training in Blue Mountain High School, Mississippi College, and the University of Mississippi.

For more than thirteen years, Mr. Guyton has served the college as accountant and office manager.

In the local community, he serves as a member of the public school board; the Busi-

Florence First Breaks Record

The First Church of Florence broke all Sunday School attendance records Sunday with 376 present. Training Union attendance of 187 was highest in several years.

High attendance day was the final day of the revival with 41 baptized. There were 6 additions by letter.

The evangelist was Rev. Clyde Chiles of St. Louis with Lee Webb of Florence and Louisville, Ky., the song leader. Rev. James Fancher is the pastor.

Revival Dates

Salt Lake (Lee): August 1-6; Rev. Bill Beam, pastor, Grandview Church, Jackson, evangelist; Rev. J. C. Mitchell, pastor.

Union Seminary (Jasper): August 8-13; Rev. Bruce Hilburn, pastor; Rev. Billy Session, pastor.

Trinity Church, Vicksburg: August 8-15; services both Sundays at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.; weekday services at 7 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.; Rev. Ralph Graves, Chaplain, R. G. LeTourneau, Inc., Vicksburg, evangelist; Fred Kegley, youth director at Trinity, minister of music.

Men's Club: serves his church as deacon, treasurer, and Young People's Training Union counselor.

His wife, the former Mildred Myrick, a former student of Blue Mountain College, serves as manager of the campus Book Store.

Calvary, Tupelo, Youth Choir To Make 2300-Mile Tour

Pictured above is a segment of the eighty-voice Youth Choir of Calvary Church, Tupelo. The group will leave Sunday, August 1, on a concert and good-will tour that will take them into South Alabama and the eastern and central portions of Florida. A side trip to Cape Kennedy, where the choir will tour the space center and sing in the chapel, and a television appearance on one of South Florida's most powerful television stations are but two outstanding events to reward the choir for its dedicated work.

The Calvary young people will appear in First Church, Montgomery, Alabama; First Church, Daytona Beach, Florida; First Church's Chapel - By - The - Lake, West Palm Beach, Florida; First Church, Ocala, Florida; First Church, Tallahassee, Florida.

The choir will sing a program of sacred music, including anthems, hymn arrangements and Gospel songs, spirituals and patriotic selections. For the fellowship hour following the concert a group of girls, known as the Choralettes, will sing a program of Broadway musical numbers.

The accompanists for the tour group will be Mrs. Jack Stacy and Mrs. Heber Simmons. Jack Day is the director.

Six From State Graduate At Southwestern Seminary

FORT WORTH, Tex.—Six students from Mississippi were among the 114 students graduating July 23 at the summer commencement of Southwestern Seminary here.

Receiving the bachelor of divinity degree were M. Douglas Ezell, Greenville; Joe H. Oliver, Amory; Barney (Lynwood) Porter, Brookhaven; and Frank W. Tribble Jr., Columbus.

Lee Dan Grubb, Laurel, received the master of religious education degree, while Roy Lee Anderson, Clarksdale, received the bachelor of divinity and master of religious education degrees.

REVIVAL RESULTS

Schlatter Church: July 11-16; Oak Hill Church, Bastrop, La., evangelist; Dr. Ernest Boling, former minister of music of the Schlatter Church, led the singing; Mrs. T. A. Lee, pianist; Mrs. Wayne Bush, organist; seven professions of faith; one received by letter. Rev. James E. Drane, pastor.

New Mexico Board Votes '66 Budget

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (BP)—The State Mission Board of the Baptist Convention of New Mexico has voted here a record 1966 total budget for denominational work of $1,209,570.

Your Money Lives IN THE BAPTIST FOUNDATION

When all else is gone, the funds you have placed in your State Baptist Foundation will continue to benefit the causes you love.

ASK YOUR PASTOR OR WRITE Mississippi Baptist Foundation P.O. Box 530, Jackson, Miss.

A PERPETUAL TRUST

YOU CAN CREATE A Living MEMORIAL

There is no better way to remember a loved one than by establishing a Memorial Through Your Own State Baptist Foundation.

ASK YOUR PASTOR OR WRITE Mississippi Baptist Foundation P.O. Box 530, Jackson, Miss.

YOUR MONEY LIVES FOREVER IN THE BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Ann Landers Warns Group To Shun 'New Morality'

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (EP)—A noted author and lecturer whose syndicated column draws 25,000 letters monthly on teenagers problems urged 1000 Lutheran youths here to shun away from the so-called "new morality" on college campuses and gave them some "old-fashioned" advice.

Miss Ann Landers of Chicago told delegates to the 70th convention of the International Walther League that they should follow the moral guidelines suggested to them by their churches and parents.

She lamented the fact that modern youth are inclined to ignore advice from clergymen and adults. This, she said, complicates efforts to help teenagers solve their problems. She asserted that while church membership continues to climb, church influence is on the decline.

Listen to Parents

Concerning the role of parents, Miss Landers said, "It still pays to listen to your parents. They have traveled the same rocky road. They once were teenagers. They know where all the bodies are buried and can spare you a few bumps."

The speaker said she based her observations on the thousands of letters she receives each month from young people. Her column, "Ask Ann Landers," appears in 200 papers in this country and abroad. She also is the author of "Since You Ask Me" and "Talks to Teenagers About Sex."

MISSISSIPPI STAFFERS AMONG RIDGECREST GROUP

RIDGECREST — Thirty-five young people from Mississippi are among the more than 400 summer staffers at Ridgcrest (N. C.) Baptist Assembly.

The assembly, owned and operated by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, will be host to more than 35,000 guests in 18 conferences this summer. Willard K. Weeks is assembly manager.

The staffers and their summer positions are:

Brenda Branyan, Tupelo, Children's Building.

Jean Brown, Tupelo, director of craft center.

Gloria Dixon, Booneville, dining hall staff.

Janiece Bricker, Lena, a sophomore at East Central Junior College, dining hall staff.

Russ Bush, Columbia, Mississippi College, audio-visual aids.

Clinton Conerly, Gulfport, a student at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Margaret Crocker, Bruce, a senior at Mississippi State College for Women, Children's Building.

Sandi Curlee, Rienzi, a sophomore at Northeast Mississippi Junior College, dining hall staff.

John Hartley, Gulfport, a sophomore at Jefferson Davis Junior College, dining hall staff.

Janie Holmes, Shelby, a student at Mississippi Delta Junior College, assistant hostess.

Pam Houlton, Centreville, a student at Louisiana State University, gift shop.

Bruce Jones, Brandon, a student at Mississippi College, Nibble Nook.

David Kemp, Corinth, a junior at Union University, exhibit hall.

Cheryl Langerfelt, Starkville, a sophomore at Mississippi State University, dining hall staff.

Laura Lindley, Meridian, a junior at Mississippi State University, assistant hostess.

Barbara Jo Massey, Laurel, a student at Mississippi College, dining hall staff.

Carol Mathews, Meridian, a student at the University of Southern Mississippi, gift shop.

Jon Matthews, Jackson, a junior at the University of Southern Mississippi, bank teller for staff bank.

James Messer, Columbia, a sophomore at William Carey College, auditorium staff.

Cynthia Moffitt, Laurel, a student at Mississippi College, dining hall staff.

Phil Myers, Ellisville, Nibble Nook.

Judy Prather, Baldwin, a student at Northeast Mississippi Junior College, gift shop.

Mary Clyde Prichard, Booneville, Houston Baptist College, gift shop.

Carolyn Redd, Como, a student at Northwest Mississippi Junior College.

Dawn Forrest, Morton, a student at Mississippi State College for Women, dining hall staff.

Faye Roby, Yazoo City, a senior at Mississippi College, gift shop.

New News Director

FORT WORTH (BP)—Robert L. Stanley, assistant professor of journalism at North Texas State University in Denton, Tex., has been named news director at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, effective Sept. 1.

RICHARD W. MULLINS (left), of Natchez, is staff organist at Glorieta Assembly, Glorieta, N. M., this summer. He is pictured with Ken Denton, a fellow student at New Orleans Seminary and staff organist for Ridgcrest Assembly, Ridgcrest, N. C. Both New Orleans students are candidates for the Master of Church Music degree and are students of Miss Bea Collins, professor of organ.

SIMS AND REYNOLDS PREPARE GOSPEL SONG COLLECTION

NASHVILLE — Dr. W. Hines Sims and Dr. William J. Reynolds have collaborated on a collection of gospel songs to meet the need for such material in Southern Baptist churches.

"Broadman favorite gospel songs," which contains both familiar and unfamiliar songs, is available now at Baptist book stores.

Among the titles are: "All That Thrills My Soul Is Jesus," "His Eye is on the Sparrow," "I Won't Have to Cross Jordan Alone," "When They Ring the Golden Bells," "Why Should He Love Me So?" "Saved By Grace" and "It Pays To Serve Jesus."

Dr. Sims is secretary of the Sunday School Board's Church Music Department, and Dr. Reynolds is director of the department's editorial services.

Now You Have An Opportunity To Make A

Two For One Gift

To The

Clarke College Student Loan Fund

A vitally interested friend of Clarke College has made a magnificent offer to match dollar for dollar all gifts made to this cause through August. The gifts may come from individuals or groups and may be in any amount. There is no requirement that a minimum total be reached before the matching gift will be made. Whatever the total is through August—from the approximately $1,000 now in hand up to a possible $15,000—all gifts will be matched by an additional gift equal to the total amount. Your gift, whatever the amount, is greatly needed and will help to provide loans for 50 students or more. Send it now.

For Every Dollar You Give Another Dollar Will Be Given Your Gift Will Be Doubled!

Clip the coupon below and mail it with your gift to:

Clarke College Student Loan Fund
Box 440
Newton, Mississippi

MY GIFT TO THE CLARKE COLLEGE STUDENT LOAN FUND

NAME _____ AMOUNT _____

ADDRESS _____

BAPTIST Training UNION DEPARTMENT

DIRECTOR
Kermit S. King SECRETARIES
Mrs. Jasper Lipscomb
Miss Betty Lewis

ASSOCIATES
G. G. Pierce
Miss Evelyn George
Norman A. Rodgers
Bill Latham

Baptist Training Union Assembly 1965 August 2-7 at Gulfshore Baptist Assembly Pass Christian, Mississippi

ASSEMBLY PERSONNEL

Evening Speaker Gordon Clinard
Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas
Song Leader Vernon W. Polk
First Baptist Church, Biloxi Fellowship Dan Dipert
First Baptist Church, Arlington, Texas
Organist Mrs. Clyde Bryan
Hattiesburg
Pianist Mrs. Ruth Stanford
Greenville

The Baptist Record

Largest Circulation of Any Newspaper Of Any Kind In Mississippi

JOE T. ODLE, Editor

Assemblies And Camps

In Alabama it is Shocco Springs; in Kentucky, Cedarmore; in Oklahoma, Falls Creek; in Missouri, Windermere; in Virginia, Eagle Eyrie; among Southern Baptists, as a convention, it is Ridgecrest or Glorietta; in Mississippi, Gulfshore, Kittiwake or Garaywa.

What are these names? Why do they, and others like them, stir the hearts of so many Baptists, young and old alike, and bring pleasant memories, or exciting anticipation?

These are names of a few of the assemblies and camps operated by Baptists in the various states, and by the Southern Baptist Convention. They are some of the many places where Southern Baptists gather for conferences and camps throughout each summer.

They mean inspiration, training, fellowship, spiritual challenge, fun, relaxation, and many other things to the thousands of Baptists who flock to them each year.

Perhaps few investments made by the states or by the convention bring greater dividends in spiritual blessing to the churches and to individuals. It is almost impossible for a person to spend a week at one of the state or convention facilities, without experiencing rich spiritual growth and blessing.

Even before the Southern Baptist Convention launched its two great assembly programs, some of the states had recognized the value of summer conferences and camps, and had begun to promote them. However, Ridgecrest has been in existence for about a half century, and is today one of the finest assembly facilities in the nation. Glorietta was established around fifteen years ago, and likewise is one of the most modern conference grounds to be found anywhere. All summer long thousands of Southern Baptists stream to these centers for conferences dealing with every area of church, denominational, and individual Christian life.

Mississippi does not lag behind any of the other state conventions in its program. Camps and assemblies have been promoted here for many years, long before permanent facilities were owned by the convention. Around fifteen years ago the Woman's Missionary Union acquired and developed Garaywa. In the early 1950's the convention purchased Kittiwake on the Gulf Coast and started a summer-long assembly schedule there. In 1959 the Gulfshore property was acquired and in these ensuing years it has been developed into one of the finest state assemblies in the nation.

As thousands of boys and girls, and men and women, from Mississippi churches attend one or the other of the camps or conferences held in these facilities each summer, and as hundreds go to Ridgecrest or Glorietta, we are sure that the blessings received are almost immeasurable. Many return to their churches with new dedication, consecration and usefulness for the Lord. Many life changing decisions are made.

We wish that it were possible for every Mississippi Baptist to share in one of these programs each summer. We would urge every person who can possibly do so to find a way to attend, and especially would suggest to parents that they try to make it possible for their children to have the opportunity to go. Churches should encourage their members to attend, and, where possible, should aid them in doing so.

It is not too late, even now, to plan to go this summer. Several splendid conferences and camp programs will be held in August. One of Gulfshore's finest will be the Bible conference August 14-20, but there probably is still room during the third Training Union Week, the Layman and Leader's Music Week, and in the Brotherhood Conference. Some of the best weeks at Ridgecrest and Glorietta are yet to come.

If you cannot go this summer, why not begin to plan now to attend next summer?

Southern Baptists and Mississippi Baptists have provided the facilities and programs. Let them bless you next year.

GUEST EDITORIAL

What Is Baptism Really?

Jack Gritz in Baptist Messenger (Okla.)

When Luci Baines Johnson, the younger daughter of President and Mrs. Johnson, entered the Roman Catholic Church a few days ago the fact received worldwide publicity. Most newspapers in the United States made the announcement a front page story and the subject was widely publicized on radio and television.

On the following Sunday Bishop James A. Pike of the Episcopal diocese of California and a former Roman Catholic himself, in a sermon preached in San Francisco, called for an apology from Luci, the priest who officiated and from the authorities of the Catholic archbishop of Washington and its cathedral. The thing Bishop Pike objected to was that Luci had been sprinkled by the priest in the so-called sacrament of baptism. He felt that since she had been sprinkled as a baby in the Episcopal Church this was enough. He said that he had been received into the Episcopal Church years ago on his Roman Catholic baptism. He pointed out that it is the traditional practice and custom of the Roman Catholic Church to recognize Episcopal baptism and not to re-baptize those received from one church into the other.

(There is absolutely nothing political in the comments here expressed. Luci had a perfect right with her parents' permission to change her church affiliation. The necessity to discuss the doctrinal subject of baptism in personal terms is regrettable—but the matter has received such widespread notice such discussion seems appropriate.)

In the opinion of this writer both Luci and the bishop were in error.

According to the teachings of the New Testament Luci has not yet been really baptized. It was not baptism when an Episcopal priest sprinkled a few drops of water upon her head as an infant. It was not baptism when as an 18-year-old girl a Roman Catholic priest sprinkled a few drops of water upon her head. The word "baptism" means immersion. The only true New Testament baptism is the immersion of a believer in Christ by the authority of a New Testament church as a symbol of the individual's spiritual death and resurrection to a new life in Christ.

We can only hope that Luci may yet come to this spiritual experience with all of its sacred meaning.

Tithing And Total Advance

By Porter Routh

Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Executive Committee, SBC

The 10,600,000 members reported by Southern Baptist churches in 1964 gave a total of 593 million dollars to their churches.

This is a lot of money. It represents real sacrifice on the part of many people, and yet if the economist are correct, this represents only about two and one-quarter per cent of the total income would run close to two billion dollars.

The same records which indicate the gifts also show only 1,400,000 tithers reported by the 33,000 Southern Baptist churches.

Total advance waits on tithing. This not only means more missionaries at home and abroad. This not only means more effective teaching in Baptist colleges and seminaries. This not only means more compassion and concern expressed in homes for children, the aged, and hospitals. This not only means all of the good programs which resources could make available, but more important this means the growth of the individual Christian.

Our objective should be to grow into the full measure of Christ. This kind of qualitative advance, this advance in character, this advance in personal concern and compassion, this beating of the Baptist heart means tithing and offerings. Total Baptist advance waits on tithing—motivated by and utilized in accordance with the Lordship of Jesus Christ and in response to His love.

BAPTIST BELIEFS

By Herschel H. Hobbs
Pastor, First Baptist Church
Oklahoma City, Okla.

THE HUSBAND OF ONE WIFE

(1 Timothy 3:2,12)

"...the husband of one wife."

This is one of the qualifications which Paul set forth for both a bishop (pastor) and a deacon. What did he mean by this? Obviously he did not mean that they must of necessity be married men. In all probability Paul was not married. So far as we know the same would apply to Timothy. The early church did not so interpret Paul's words.

In both verses A. T. Robertson comments that Paul meant "one at a time, clearly" (v.2) and one "at a time as in verse 2" (v.12). The Expositor's Greek Testament says of verse 2, "What is here forbidden is bigamy under any circumstances." And on verse 12 it refers back to this comment on verse 2. But Matthew Henry takes these to mean that they should not have "given a bill of divorce to one, and then taken another, or not having many wives at once."

The background of these verses was the current practices involved in marriage. Especially among the Gentile pagans a man might have several wives at one time. Divorce might be obtained on almost any ground. This was true even among many of the Jews. The Jewish teacher, Hillel, taught that a man might divorce his wife for any cause. But another, Shammai, allowed for divorce and remarriage only on the ground of adultery. These two schools of thought were the basis of the question posed to Jesus in Matthew 19:3. Jesus apparently permitted one cause (adultery) for divorce and remarriage, although some interpreters do not agree that this was the case. The author holds with A. T. Robertson that He did so allow. Hence Robertson's comment "one at a time, clearly."

This position plus Expositor's reference to bigamy must be considered in the light of Jesus' teaching concerning divorce. If one holds that this is not a genuine teaching of Jesus, then he would rule out all divorced persons, regardless of the cause, as being qualified to be a pastor or deacon. But if one holds that this is a genuine teaching of Jesus, then to be consistent he should hold that a man divorced and remarried, and having adultery as the basis of divorce, should be eligible to be a pastor or deacon. For obviously under this circumstance he would not be considered as having two wives at one time. But in any case experience teaches that such a person does face a handicap in this regard.

Advanced Study In Missions For Men Planned

An advanced missions study program designed to develop the Christian lives of Baptist men will make its appearance October 1, 1965 under the auspices of the Brotherhood Commission and the Southern Baptist Seminary Extension Department.

Arrangements for the depth studies with a missions emphasis were worked out by Ralph Herring, director of the Seminary Extension Department, and George W. Schroeder, executive secretary of the Brotherhood Commission.

The special program for men calls for certificates at three levels.

Men will receive the Standard Brotherhood Certificate when they complete four basic courses in missions, Old Testament, evangelism and ethics.

The Advanced Brotherhood Certificate will be awarded on completion of six additional courses and the certificate in Christian Life Development with a major in missions on completion of 16 courses.

The 16 - course certificate corresponds with certificates the Seminary Extension Department now offers in pastoral training and religious education.

Courses required for the basic Brotherhood certificate are Missions 164, Old Testament 111, Evangelism 123, and Ethics 226.

Herring identified the courses as regular seminary studies modified to suit the needs of adults who are not seeking to qualify for graduate degrees but want to prepare themselves for more effective Christian service.

A great many open minds should be closed for repairs.

According to Boston Probate Court Judge Robert G. Wilson, Jr., the "sociable drink with the boys" is leading alarmingly often to broken homes and divorce. In more than half the divorce cases to come before him, Judge Wilson estimates that extreme intoxication is a major factor. (The Christian Science Monitor)

The scope of California's liquor problem has been scored by Governor Edmund G. Brown. Reporting to the state legislature that the cost of bad effects of alcohol has become "incredibly high," Governor Brown declared, "With the lives of thousands of Californians and a billion dollars a year in losses at stake, we can do no less than pledge a new assault on this social and economic evil."

TAKE TIME

TO THINK: It is the Source of Power.
TO WORK: It is the price of success.
TO PLAY: It is the secret of perpetual youth.
TO READ: It is the fountain of wisdom.
TO LOVE AND BE LOVED: It is a God-given privilege.
TO BE FRIENDLY: It is the road to happiness.
TO LAUGH: It is the music of the soul.
TO GIVE: It is too short a day to be selfish.
TO PRAY: It is the greatest power on earth.
TO WORSHIP: It is the soul's great need.

Mississippi has one Southern Baptist church to each 688 people in the state; Arizona one to 5,400; Alaska one to 5,818; and Ohio one to 22,163.

Highest Bible distribution annually is in North America followed in order by Latin America, Asia, Africa and Europe.

Calendar of Prayer

(This list is not compiled according to birthdays.)

August 2—Birdie Gray, Baptist Book Store; W. C. Wall, Jr., faculty, Mississippi College.

August 3—Mrs. Hettie Rogers, staff, Carey College; Obra Quave, faculty, Carey College.

August 4—L. F. Haire, Calhoun associational superintendent of missions; Inez Driskell, faculty, Gilfoy School of Nursing.

August 5—Rebecca Rodgers, staff, Children's Village; D. H. Guyton, business manager, Blue Mountain College.

August 6—Carolyn Madison, Baptist Building; Mavis McCarty, Baptist Building; Lynda Ashley, Baptist Building.

August 7—Betty Jane Frew, Baptist student director, Hinds Junior College; Willie Mae Cutrer, Baptist Student director, Jones Junior College.

August 8—W. L. Compere, president, Clarke College; E. P. Burke, superintendent of missions, Carroll-Montgomery Counties.

The Baptist Record

Joe T. Odle Editor
Joe Abrams Associate Editor
Anne McWilliams Ed. Asst.
Mrs. Eunice J. Campbell Business Manager

Official Journal of the MISSISSIPPI BAPTIST CONVENTION BOARD

Box 530, Jackson, Miss. 39205
Chester L. Quarles, D. D.
Executive Secretary-Treasurer

The Baptist Building
Mississippi Street at Congress
Baptist Record Advisory Committee: Carl McIntire, Clinton, Chairman; Tom W. Dunlap, Natchez; Johnny L. Taylor, Canton; Estus Mason, Crystal Springs; and George H. Keith, Carthage.

Subscriptions: $2.00 a year payable in advance.
Entered as second-class matter April 4, 1918 at the Post Office at Jackson, Miss., under the Act of October 3, 1917.

Obituaries of 150 words or less will be published free. More than 150 words will be charged five cents per word. Memorials and resolutions will be charged five cents per word. The sender of material requiring a charge should state to whom bill should be sent.

The Baptist Record is a member of the Southern Baptist Press Association, the Associated Church Press and the Evangelical Press Association.

Off The Record

BE PREPARED

A student who had failed in all of his subjects wired his gentle mother as follows: "Failed in everything. Prepare papa."

The mother wired back: "Papa prepared. Prepare yourself."

OPEN LETTER TO 'MR. BAYER'

Dear Mr. Bayer:
You manufacture aspirin that relieves suffering and colds and fevers. The mixture used in your tablet makes it possible for a person to get out of bed and fight off headaches, muscle spasms, and bad nerves. I have noticed that these tablets work wonders on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and especially well on Saturdays. But people who take them on Sundays get no relief. They cannot get rid of their aches and pains. They are not able to attend church or Sunday school. Is it possible for you to examine your tablet and put in an ingredient that will work on Sundays?
—Just Wondering

Teacher: "Give me a sentence with the word fiddlestick in it."

Student: "If the bed I sleep in is too short, my fiddlestick out."

Policeman: "Hey you! Didn't you hear me, 'Pull over.'"

Driver: "I thought you said, 'Good morning, Mr. Mayor.'"

Policeman: "It is a good morning, isn't it?"

Applicants for jobs on a state dam project had to take a written examination. The first question was, "What does hydrodynamics mean?" One chap hesitated, then wrote: "It means I don't get the job."

One form of perverted co-operation is illustrated in the following: A little boy was playing all alone in the front yard when a neighbor came along and asked where his brother was. "Oh," said he, "he's in the house playing a duet. I finished first."

A Gentleman is a fellow who always gives a lady a head start before racing her to the bus seat.

Babes are angels whose wings grow shorter as their legs grow longer. — H. Truman Maxey in Care & Share

Irrefutable Association

LAST YEAR THERE WAS A 12% INCREASE IN HIGHWAY DEATHS OVER THE PREVIOUS YEAR. IT NOW APPEARS PROBABLE THAT THE DEATH TOLL ON THE HIGHWAYS DURING 1965 WILL EXCEED 50,000 FOR THE FIRST TIME — TRAVELERS INC. CO. FACT BOOK

ONE HALF OF ALL FATAL ACCIDENTS ARE ALCOHOL-INVOLVED. THE SOCIAL DRINKER, NOT THE DRUNK, IS THE BIGGEST PROBLEM ON OUR STREETS AND HIGHWAYS. HIS DRIVING ABILITY IS DEFINITELY IMPAIRED.
— THE NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL

Newest In Books

Paper Backs

NEW THEOLOGY NO. 2 by Marty and Peerman (MacMillan, 315 pp., $1.95)

More essays on modern theological thinking. The problem of God and the godless, nature and law, the churches in relation, biblical trends, and extension of theology are considered.

AFTER DEATH, WHAT? by William B. Ward (John Knox, 95 pp., $1.00)

A Presbyterian preacher writes on the meaning of death, the future life, and things of eternity. Explains Christian teachings about life after death and contrasts the secular philosophies and those of non-Christian religions.

GOING ON IN THE CHRISTIAN FAITH by Ernest F. Kovan (Baker, 142 pp., $1.95)

Messages especially prepared for those who have just become Christians. Discusses many facets of the Christian life.

THIRTY YEARS WITH SOUTH SEA CANNIBALS by John G. Paton (Moody, 317 pp., $1.29)

An autobiography of the great missionary, John G. Paton.

BOUNDARIES UNLIMITED by Neil Wyrick, Jr. (John Knox Press, 96 pp., $1.00)

One - paragraph devotional messages used in a Dial-A-Devotional service which the author conducts in his South Florida community.

THE SECULAR CITY by Harvey Cox (MacMillan, 276 pp., $1.45)

An important study of the rise of urban civilization and the collapse of traditional religion in that urban civilization in our modern day. This book should not be overlooked by those who are seeking to find ways to make the church an effective witness in our modern day.

THE RESPONSIBLE CHURCH AND THE FOREIGN MISSION by Beyerhaus and Lefever (Eerdmans, 199 pp., $1.95)

A study of the modern concept of missions, and problems being raised concerning it today. Special attention is given to the Anglican Mission to the Niger, the Lutheran Mission to the Batak, and the Presbyterian Mission to Korea. Problems of the relationships of modern mission work to the sponsoring bodies are carefully considered.

MISSIONARY HEALTH MANUAL by Paul E. Adolph (Moody, 188 pp., $2.50)

A practical manual on medical care and health of foreign missionaries. It is written by a doctor who has specialized in this field.

Spices Important In Biblical Times

NEW YORK, N. Y. (NAPS)—As early as 50,000 years before Christ, archeologists believe, cavemen had learned that certain leaves made foods taste better. Later men found they could add spice to life in the form of fragrant toiletries, pungent incense, potent medicines. War, economics, religion, romance—all were influenced by "the spice of life."

"Spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense" (Exodus 25:6) were important in Hebrew religious rites in Biblical times. "Ye pay tithes of mint, and anise, and cummin," said Jesus (Matt. 23:23).

Cinnamon was used in Biblical days, not only to prepare the holy oils, but to make everyday life sweeter; it was strewn over garments and bed linens. "All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia (cinnamon)," Psalm 45 says of the reigning king.

The Egyptians, who considered spices their most valuable possession, also used them from perfume. To this day, Arab women in the desert perfume themselves by sitting in the smoke from fires of burning spices.

Men of the Roman Empire perfumed their arms with mint and their hair and eyebrows with marjoram! War heroes and outstanding athletes received, as a crown of victory, a wreath of aromatic bay leaves.

The sweet smell of social success was a little different in China—where courtiers in 266 B. C. had to hold cloves in their mouths when addressing the emperor!

During the Middle Ages, when people hungered for ways to make their poor food supplies more palatable, a sack of spices was literally better than a bag of gold. A pound of ginger was worth the price of a sheep; a pound of mace (related to nutmeg) would buy three sheep or half a cow; cloves cost the equivalent of $20 a pound. The guards on London docks, even down to Shakespeare's time, had their pockets sewn up to make sure they didn't steal any spices!

Pepper was the greatest prize of all. In the 11th century, many towns kept their accounts in pepper, taxes were assessed and paid in it—and a sack of pepper was considered to be worth a man's life! By the 14th century, its value had declined little—people who were "the salt of the earth" frequently preferred peppercorns to money in payment of wages and bills.

History

The quest for spices has molded history. Christopher Columbus, Magellan, Vasco da Gama were seeking new routes for the spice trade when they made the explorations that changed world maps. For centuries, European powers battled for control of spice-producing lands. The Dutch emerged triumphant in the 17th century, and ruled the market with a rod of iron—they actually burned cinnamon in the streets of Amsterdam to keep supplies low and prices high.

One of America's greatest universities owes its beginnings to the spice trade; with the fortune he made dealing in spices in India, Elihu Yale founded Yale University.

A highly popular spice-based scent has a clipper ship on the bottle, and one reason may be that Yankee Clipper captain Jonathan Carnes brought pepper to Salem, Mass.—establishing Salem as a center of commerce for almost 50 years. Five per cent of the expenses of the entire national government came out of import duties levied at Salem!

Health

Health as well as wealth has often been sought in spices. Medicinal benefits were thought to come from sage tea, still drunk in many parts of England as a spring and fall tonic! Saffron tea is an American folk remedy for measles; in colonial times some people took mint baths to calm the nerves.

Some Texans still think that a piece of cotton sprinkled with black pepper can cure earache. But this isn't nearly as bad as an old Bavarian filling for tooth cavities: a paste of black pepper and sugar!

Lovesickness was also thought curable by spices. In parts of Czechoslovakia, a girl can charm the man of her heart by handling him a sprig of basil. And in Italy, a swain who wears a sprig of basil in his hair may be declaring his matrimonial intentions!

DR. ROBERT A. HINGSON (left), senior medical consultant to Amigos de Honduras, explains jet gun used in project to Dr. Hosea Antonio Peraza, national minister of health in Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras. Dr. Peraza welcomed Amigos and extended full cooperation of the Health Ministry. (Photo by Gainer Bryan, Jr.)

AMIGOS DE HONDURAS—Crash Program Of Medical Missions

By Gainer E. Bryan, Jr. (Mr. Bryan, editor of The Maryland Baptist, a weekly state paper, is on special assignment for the Baptist World Alliance through the Operation Brother's Brother Fund.)

SAN PEDRO SULA, Honduras, C. A. — Can a crash program of medical foreign missions succeed?

Dr. Robert A. Hingson, co-developer of the famous jet-gun inoculators for mass vaccination, thinks so. He directed a lightning campaign of disease prevention and treatment in Liberia, West Africa, in 1962. Known as Operation Brother's Brother, it was highly successful.

He inspired the Amigos de Honduras project of the River Oaks Baptist Church of Houston, Tex., a similar undertaking now in progress in this Central American country. A total of 253,267 shots had been given at end of third week of nine-week campaign.

Guy Bevil, Jr., 29-year-old minister of youth education of the River Oaks Church, thinks so. He raised a quarter of a million dollars worth of donated drugs and medical supplies, another $150,000 worth of contributed equipment and got his church to borrow $20,000 to purchase four-wheel-drive vehicles for the interior of Honduras.

Recruits

He recruited 40 doctors, 60 nurses and medical students and 200 other students to come down in three-week relays this summer and rough it in the back country—for the relief of suffering, in the name of Christ. This is a nine weeks summer program.

He is down here now, wrestling with the problems of personnel and supply under trying conditions of communications and terrain, staking his professional future on the outcome. With him is a corps of as loyal "troops" as any general in the field ever had.

I was asked by the Baptist World Alliance to drop in as an observer and report my findings. My expenses are being paid from the Operation Brother's Brother Fund, a fund created by doctors, since the Liberian campaign, to foster medical help for human need anywhere in the world.

At BWA

Dr. Hingson flew here himself, after appearing on the program of the Baptist World Congress in Miami Beach, to help assure the success of this undertaking. I accompanied him, first, to the capital city of Tegucigalpa then to San Pedro Sula, capital of Cortes Department and headquarters of the project, next on safari to Santa Barbara, capital of Santa Barbara Department in the interior, and finally back here.

"I always go first to the capital city of a country in which I plan to operate and talk to the top people," Dr. Hingson said, explaining his style. A super-human dynamo of a person, this Baptist disciple of Christian compassion through medicine has an all-American background.

He was born in Anniston, Ala., in 1919, studied medicine at the University of Alabama Medical School and received his M. D. degree from Emory University, Atlanta. Next, he was fellow in anesthesia at the Mayo Clinic.

As a U. S. Public Health Service anesthesiologist, a surgeon, and a professor he has lived and worked in Staten Island, N. Y.; Philadelphia; Memphis, Tenn.; Baltimore; and Cleveland. In Cleveland he belongs to the First Baptist Church.

Dr. Hingson first received world attention for his work in the development of safe, painless childbirth, known in the medical profession as technic continuous caudal analgesia.

Both "anesthesia" and "analgesia," from Greek, mean "insensitivity to pain." Relief of pain and prevention of disease—these form the vocation of this medical man of God. He is professor of anesthesiology at Western Reserve University.

In "Tegosee," as the Hondurians call their beautiful capital city in the mountains, Dr. Hingson and his son, Dickson, a Johns Hopkins medical student, called first at the U. S. Embassy. "That is the protocol I always follow," Dr. Hingson said. Honduras made the 73rd country into which he has gone on medical mercy missions of one kind or another. There he conferred with the charge d'affaires in the absence of the ambassador.

2,000 An Hour

Next he went to the National Health Ministry to explain his program to Dr. Hosea Antonio Peraza, new and progressive minister of health. He demonstrated the jet-guns that he had brought with him—$8,000 worth of his own equipment—capable, with electric power, of immunizing 2,000 people an hour.

"My own personal respect for Honduras is such, through the Baptist World Alliance," he said, "that I am bringing $6,000 worth of vaccine as a personal gift to the people of Honduras."

Dr. Peraza replied, "The Honduras Government, by means of the Ministry of Health, wishes to thank you for your generosity and for being here. I am ready to extend all possible aid in order that your ministry may be a success."

Thursday, July 29, 1965

THE BAPTIST RECORD 5

"You'll Find Your Lives," Journeymen Trainees Told

They bounded into Richmond, Va., with all the cockiness of youth, aware that they were making mission history. "Sure," said a tanned young man from Florida when a reporter asked for his picture. "We'll sign autographs, too."

But beneath their banter were the serious questions, dedication, and, yes, reservations that characterize the 46 young people training as the first missionary journeymen of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

"I'm scared," admitted one, though she quickly added that she's eagerly anticipating the two years' service overseas.

"We really don't know what to expect because there's no one we can ask," explained another. "We're the first."

They have all the questions and qualms of any young person entering the business world from college or changing jobs—compounded by the fact that their jobs will be overseas. Each knows his general assignment: to be a teacher, youth worker, secretary, librarian, agricultural adviser, commercial artist, nurse. But how?

"How do you teach teachers in Nigeria?" asked a young woman facing that job after experience as a children's worker for an Alabama church. "You have to teach according to the objectives of your culture. I don't know the Nigerian culture, and I won't be able to talk to the people in their language."

This and other questions are why the journeymen trainees are spending eight weeks on the University of Richmond campus. The 10-hour-a-day training schedule, which began June 21, includes area studies to introduce them to the cultures, vocational studies to teach the purposes and methods of their specific jobs, and language studies to familiarize them with the major tongues of the 25 countries to which they will go.

Bible study, with special emphasis on 1 Corinthians, is designed to enrich their spiritual lives and place their jobs on a scriptural base. Studies in evangelism and missions will prepare them for effective Christian witness overseas. Discussions on world affairs, race relations, comparative religion, personal development, and health will further help them adjust to the world outside the United States.

Two physical education sessions a day will increase their own physical fitness and teach them to direct games and sports.

"We want the young people to learn that it takes more than a warm heart to go out and witness," says Dr. W. F. Howard, head of the Texas Baptist student department, who is directing the journeyman training for the Foreign Mission Board. "They also need some skills, which they must develop to their fullest potential."

For example, the skill of language is one that will receive continuing emphasis throughout the eight weeks. Richard M. Styles, of Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, is coordinating this phase of the program and directing the individual study of a total of 16 languages. Four of the journeymen will need to be proficient in Spanish in order to work effectively; the others can work in English, but some knowledge of the languages will help them do their jobs better.

Mrs. Styles, a former high school and kindergarten teacher, is directing vocational studies for the 26 who will teach; Dr. Howard is introducing the eight student and youth workers to objectives and resources; and various specialists are helping the trainees prepare for their assignments.

For the most part, the training school is staffed with a rotating faculty: theological seminary professors, other leaders in Baptist denominational life, furloughing missionaries, Foreign Mission Board staff members, and specialists in linguistics and world affairs. Coordinator of the training is Rev. Louis R. Cobbs, an associate secretary for missionary personnel for the Board, who directs the Missionary Journeyman Program and the selection of its participants.

REV. LOUIS R. COBBS (left) helps three young people move onto the campus of the University of Richmond (Va.), where they and 43 others are spending eight weeks training to go overseas as the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board's first missionary journeymen. Mr. Cobbs is director of the Missionary Journeyman Program for the Board.

PAUL A. BURKWALL AND EMILY ROBERTS fill out passport applications in preparation for mission assignments in Nigeria and Liberia, respectively. Mr. Burkwall is from Beaumont, Tex. (he was born in Missouri), and Miss Roberts, from Clarksville, Ga.

MISS ESTHER CUMMINGS (left), a linguistic specialist, demonstrates the pronunciation of a consonant for Sylvia Chambless (center) and Betty Easton, missionary journeymen. Miss Chambless, who is from Montgomery, Ala., will serve in Chile; Miss Easton, from Belleville, Ill., in the Bahamas.

The climax of the eight weeks will come August 10 when the young people are dedicated to their tasks in a special service. They will leave Richmond August 14, have a few days for personal preparation, and arrive on their fields by September 1.

There they will work alongside career missionaries for two years, freeing them from routine jobs or helping them establish new work. From this beginning with 46, the Foreign Mission Board hopes to eventually have 200 journeymen on the mission fields at all times, Mr. Cobbs says.

Why are these young people—all of them college graduates under the age of 27—postponing further study or careers in the U. S. to give two years overseas?

"Because there's a job to be done," answered one. "And young people are capable of doing it. Maybe not as effectively as the mature missionaries, but we don't have enough of them."

"I hope we can be a shot-in-the-arm to the missionaries," said another.

Many do not know what course their lives will take after these two years. They see journeyman service as a testing ground. "It brings youth into mission work while they are still unsettled in what they want to do, still single and without family responsibilities," a young woman explained. "If I decide missions is not for me, I won't regret the experience."

The group were reassured in their first Bible study class by Dr. Edward A. McDowell, Jr., from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. "You're beginning right," he told them. "You are going to the mission fields to lose your lives in love and service. Don't worry; you'll find your lives."

LETTERS FROM 10,000 VIEWERS PRAISE NBC BIBLE HISTORY

"The Inheritance," a recreation of Biblical history filmed at ancient sites in the Middle East, has drawn more than 10,000 commendatory letters from viewers since its presentation as a one-hour color special on the NBC-TV Network Sunday, May 23. The program was produced by the NBC-TV Religious Program unit in association with the Southern Baptist Convention's Radio and Television Commission. The audience-mail figure is reported by Dr. Paul M. Stevens, the Commission's director, who was theological consultant for the program.

Faith In Action Series Ready

Southern Baptists' new missionary journeymen program and a Baptist college president are featured on the National Broadcasting Company's "Faith in Action" radio series each of the five Sundays in August.

The five 15-minute programs are produced jointly by the NBC Radio Network and the denomination's Radio and Television Commission, Fort Worth, Tex.

First program in the series, scheduled for broadcast Sunday, August 1, highlights an explanation of the origin, organization, and purpose of the journeymen system by Dr. Jesse C. Fletcher, secretary for missionary personnel, Foreign Mission Board.

The August 8 episode presents a panel discussion between two young people appointed under the new program and two missionaries now serving in the countries to which the two youths have been assigned.

Bob Abernathy of the NBC staff moderates the panel, composed of journeymen Phil Caskey, Stillwater, Okla. (Philippines), Carol Levinson, Benson, N. C. (Nigeria), and missionaries Bryant Hicks, Philippines, and Margaret Lamberth, Nigeria.

On the remaining three Sundays in the month, August 15, 21, and 29, Dr. H. Guy Moore, president of William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., discusses "On being alive to this generation," "What have you learned?" and "Remember who you are."

Graham Completes Vancouver Crusade

VANCOUVER, B. C. (BP)—Billy Graham wound up his three-day crusade in Vancouver's Empire Stadium here with a total attendance of 77,000.

It was a figure that the football moguls, who usually hold out at the stadium, would have been pleased to chalk up for three of their league games.

In a broiling sun on the last of the three days, close to 30,000 persons, shading their eyes with the crusade songbooks, listened to the evangelist.

Give me the serenity to accept what cannot be changed; give me the courage to change what can be changed and the wisdom to know one from the other.—Reinhold Niebuhr.

"WE WERE HAPPY and the kids were happy," Dick Hingson (right), Johns Hopkins medical student from Cleveland, Ohio, said of vaccination experiences in Honduras. What won kids was discovery that the novel jet inoculators used by Amigos de Honduras caused no pain. Administering shot is Joe Bracwell of Houston, Tex. Both Hingson and Bracwell are Baptists. (Photo by Gainer Bryan, Jr.)

WMU Special Day Offering Reaches Total $18,910.10

The gifts to the WMU Special Day Offering are listed as received through July 15 with 372 churches participating. At that time total gifts amounted to $18,910.10.

DISTRICT 1

George	27.00
Agriola	15.30
Barton	4.34
Hillcrest	108.29
Lucedale	52.07
First	10.90
Rocky Creek	80.00
Greene	20.00
Fellowship	1.00
Leakeville	8.40
McLain	3.11
Pine Level	10.00
Gulfcoast	13.00
Bay Vista	106.25
Bay St. Louis	25.45
Bay Air	128.16
Trinity	15.20
Gulfport	15.75
First	10.20
Grace Memorial	8.45
West	15.75
Handshover	10.20
Long Beach	8.45
Lysan	10.00
Mississippi City	19.15
New Hope	10.00
Pass Christian	3.50
Perkinsville	7.80
Jackson	6.85
Bellfountain	77.00
Beauwpa	6.00
Moss Point	56.00
First	58.83
Orange Grove	5.00
Pascagoula	1.00
Eastlawn	3.30
First	23.90
Wadsworth	20.75
Lamar	25.00
Lumberton	5.31
Olin	17.00
Oral	12.50
Purvis	31.00
Sumrall	8.85
Lebanon	25.15
Big Level	90.00
Cartersville	52.41
Dixie	7.20
Green's Creek	65.25
Hattiesburg	12.20
First	10.00
Main Street	10.00
Macedonia	16.55
Petal	6.00
Harvey	19.72
Temple	10.00
Rawls Springs	39.55
Wiggins	7.46
Wright	10.25
Wright	17.80
Beaumont	7.00
New Augusta	37.80
Richmond	5.00

DISTRICT 2

Clark	5.00
St. Zion	3.20
Oak Grove	35.26
Quitman	36.00
Shubuta	15.15
Corington	8.00
Calhoun	791.77
Collins	29.00
Leaf River	21.35
Leaf River	19.17
St. Olive	21.50
New Hope	25.00
Salem	20.00
Union Sr.	102.02
Jasper	22.14
Bay Springs	14.50
Edon	18.00
Fellowship	8.00
Heidelberg	40.00
Louis	17.00
New Fellowship	12.70
Pine Grove	6.81
Shady Grove	49.57
Stringer	4.00
Union Seminary	2.00
Jones	24.95
Eastview	1.00
Ellisville	1.00
West	1.00
Harmony	2.00
Hoboken	7.00
Indian Springs	7.00
Laurel	14.25
First	1.00
Magnolia St.	26.00
Plainway	15.10
Second	3.25
West Laurel	5.00
Oakland Grove	8.85
Ovett
Park Haven

DISTRICT 3

Kemper	5.00
Black Water	30.00
DeKalb	8.00
Salem	26.00
West Kemper	9.25
Lauderdale	9.25
Bethany	9.00
Carmel	9.00
Collinsville	8.00
Daleville	8.00
Fellowship	15.00
Hebron	10.00
Kewanee	53.25
Macedonia	22.00
Meridian	9.20
East View	30.00
Fifteenth Avenue	125.00
Highland	15.00
Oak Grove	12.00
Oakland Heights	5.15
Poplar Springs	12.79
Southside	28.20
State Boulevard	34.46
Midway	8.06
Mt. Olive	6.50
New Hope	25.79
Russell	7.00
Toombsville

DISTRICT 4

Calvary Mission	11.56
Mt. Pleasant	3.50
Panola	47.50
Como	5.00
Courtland	14.70
Crenshaw	17.79
Good Hope	30.50
Hebron	11.00
Liberty Hill	33.45
Peach Creek	6.00
Plumtree's Rest	26.25
Pope	170.50
Sardis	28.57
Bellevue	18.05
Blue Lake	48.00
Crowder	25.00
Darling	25.00
Lambert	44.74
Marks	30.80
First Hopewell Macedonia
Mt. Zion
Newton
Bethel
Chunky
Clark Venable
Hickory Liberty
Mt. Nebo
Mt. Vernon
Newton
Newton Mission
Union
Scott
Forest
Harperville
Hillsboro Lake Liberty Ludlow
Morton
First

DISTRICT 5

Alcorn	5.00
Corinth	11.00
South	20.50
Benton	20.00
Ashland	4.61
Hickory Flat	15.00
Itawamba	7.00
Dorsey	13.00
Evergreen	8.25
Trinity	5.00
Lee	5.00
Auburn	5.00
Belvidere	5.00
Blissell	5.00
Camp Creek	5.00
Nettleton	5.00
Priceville	5.00
Saltville	5.00
Sherman	5.00
Tupelo	5.00
Calvary	5.00
East	5.00
Vernonia	5.00
Pontotoc	5.00
Eora	5.00
Endville	5.00
Friendship	5.00
Locust Hill	5.00
Pontotoc	5.00
First	5.00
Toxiah	5.00
Zion	5.00
Prentiss	5.00
Booneville	5.00
Calvary	5.00
First	5.00
Mt. Olive	5.00
Tippah	5.00
Blue Mountain	5.00
Chalchaste	5.00
Harmony	5.00
Palmer	5.00
Ripley	5.00
West Ripley	5.00
Tishomingo	5.00
Burnsville	5.00
Calvary	5.00
Highland	5.00
Iuka	5.00
New Prospect	5.00
Paden	5.00
Tishomingo	5.00
Unity	5.00
Union County	5.00
Ingomar	5.00
Jericho	5.00
Myrtle	5.00
Temple	5.00
New Albany	5.00
First	5.00
Northside Mission	5.00
Wallerville	5.00

DISTRICT 6

DeSoto	4.30
Cedar View	10.00
Ebenezer	5.10
Hernando	15.75
Olive Branch	4.00
Pleasant Hill	34.35
Lafayette	21.25
Clear Creek	22.35
New Prospect	22.35
Oxford	22.35
First	22.35
Philadelphia	22.35
Shiloh	22.35
Yellow Leaf	22.35
Marshall	22.35
Byhalia	22.35

DISTRICT 7

Calvary Mission	11.56
Mt. Pleasant	3.50
Panola	47.50
Como	5.00
Courtland	14.70
Crenshaw	17.79
Good Hope	30.50
Hebron	11.00
Liberty Hill	33.45
Peach Creek	6.00
Plumtree's Rest	26.25
Pope	170.50
Sardis	28.57
Bellevue	18.05
Blue Lake	48.00
Crowder	25.00
Darling	25.00
Lambert	44.74
Marks	30.80
First Hopewell Macedonia
Mt. Zion
Newton
Bethel
Chunky
Clark Venable
Hickory Liberty
Mt. Nebo
Mt. Vernon
Newton
Newton Mission
Union
Scott
Forest
Harperville
Hillsboro Lake Liberty Ludlow
Morton
First

DISTRICT 8

Benoit	26.00
Cleveland	65.10
Calvary	67.07
Immanuel	6.00
Yale Street	21.00
Duncan	37.00
Merigold	12.00
Morrison's Chapel	14.48
Shaw	47.75
Shelby	6.70
Humphreys	7.65
Belzoni	33.00
First	124.25
Second	20.00
Isola	20.00
LeFlore	25.00
Greenwood	117.45
Calvary	25.00
First	25.00
North	25.00
Ita Bena	11.50
Minter City	5.00
Phillipston	5.00
Riverside	12.25
Scholar	6.00
Sunflower	51.20
Drew	65.45
Fairview	90.02
Indianola	5.75
First	97.50
Second	8.00
Lincoln	21.00
Roundaway	21.00
Ruleville	75.00
Sunflower	33.50
Tallahatchie	189.82
Charleston	25.20
Paynes	25.20
Sumner	35.45
Tutwiler	35.45
Webb	23.46
Washington	51.90
Arcola	26.50
Darlowe	15.71
Greenfield Mission	16.57
Greenville	23.40
Calvary	261.81
Emmanuel	1.00
First	68.10
Parkview	24.50
Second	125.00
Hollandale Leland
First

DISTRICT 9

Copiah	15.00
Antioch	7.50
Bethel	76.30
Crystal Springs	28.50
Highland	5.00
Damascus	5.00
Gallman	12.00
Gallman	68.95
Hazlehurst	6.50
Shady Grove	9.46
Spring Hill	24.00
Strong Hope	8.00
Sylvan	35.00
Wesson	9.69
Hinds	100.37
Byram	14.00
Clinton	51.73
Morrison Heights	15.02
Jackson	130.40
Alta Woods	589.96
Briarwood	9.00
Broadmoor	24.75
Calvary	25.45
Colonial Heights	915.00
Crestwood	40.00
Erlaine	12.00
First	121.00
Griffith Memorial	151.00
Hillcrest	48.00
Oak Forest	28.75
Parkway	37.00
Ridgecrest	2.00
Robinson Street	13.45
Southside	6.50
Temple	14.76
West Jackson	5.00
Westview	35.30
Woodland Hills	40.00
Woodville Heights	30.23
Pocahontas	12.75
Raymond	9.25
Salem	27.00
Utica	26.25
Madison	14.90
Camden	22.25
Canton	10.00
First	68.15
Flora	40.75
Ridgeland	10.87
Rankin	8.50
Brandon	36.62
Antioch	27.00
Brandon	11.90
Briar Hill	10.00
Clear	8.00
County Line	53.00
Cross Roads	3.00
Florence, First	8.00
Hickory Ridge	45.50
Leesburg	7.00
Mt. Zion	3.00
Pelham	6.00
Pelham	51.80
Puckett	23.45
Sharkey-Jessup	17.50
Anguilla	7.00
Carly	67.96
Lake Washington	6.00
Rolling Fork	15.00
Valley Park	7.85
Warren	21.50
Calvary	14.85
Grace	14.10
Crystal	20.00
Vicksburg	36.55
Bowmar Avenue
First Wayside Woodlawn Yazoo

DISTRICT 10

Adams	5.50
Cliff Temple	73.75
Natches	15.25
First	24.00
Franklin	21.25
Concord	11.18
Hopewell	100.00
Meadow	61.00
Providence	28.00
Siloam	66.03
Mississippi	18.00
Berwick	10.80
Centerville	8.65
Crosby	3.50
Ebenezer	35.15
Enterprise	40.25
Gallie	28.00
Gilsum	9.00
Mars Hill	6.00
Mt. Olive	8.73
Mt. Vernon	21.00
Winona, First	79.77
Oak Grove	12.50
Thompson	6.25
Woodville	93.75
Pike	238.00
Fernwood	156.30
Holmesville	45.00
Magnolia	18.00
First	18.00
Central	14.00
North	14.00
Navilla	14.00
Oxford	14.00
Progress	14.00
Silver Springs	14.00
Summit	14.00
Tanipahoa	14.00
Union	5.00
Elmo	15.50
Fayette	12.35
Pleasant Hill	12.00
Union Church	5.00
Unity

DISTRICT 11

Jeff Davis	16.05
Basfield	10.50
Hathorn	12.50
Hebron	35.00
Hepzibah	36.00
Oak Grove	12.00
Phyllis	147.60
Prentiss	50.10
Whitesand	15.40
Lawrence	11.75
Calvary	37.00
Carroll	38.55
Jayess	7.35
New Hebron	10.55
New Hope	10.00
Shiloh	10.00
Lincoln	10.00
Arlington	16.00
Bethel	16.00
Brookhaven	12.75
East Haven	9.25
Southway	27.00
Clear Branch	26.25
Friendship	14.90
Heuch's Retreat	22.25
Little Bahala	10.00
Montgomery	49.00
Mount Zion	22.25
New Sight	49.00
Pleasant Hill	10.00
Ruth	25.00
Union	4.75
Union Hall	29.00
Marion	13.50
Cedar Grove	110.90
Columbia	8.00
Calvary	5.00
East	5.00
First	5.00
South	5.00
Good	18.27
Hurricane Creek	10.00
Spring Cottage	10.00
Simpson	10.00
Braxton	20.00
D'Lo	6.00
Eastside	11.25
Fellowship	28.25
Magee	15.00
Rendenshall	36.00
Oak Grove	19.50
Pineola	3.25
Walshall	11.50
Crystal Springs	5.80
Dinan	13.00
Knock	5.35
Lexie	31.55
New Zion
Salem
Union

ANTICIPATING THEIR TRIP ABROAD this summer are four William Carey College personalities. Students Marie Moseley and Sylvia Mafford, at left, will be visiting Sylvia's missionary parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mafford, in Madrid, Spain. Dr. John Sinclair points to Germany where he will spend a portion of his six-weeks music tour. He is professor of piano at Carey. Ellen Tolbert, at far right, will take a camping trip through Europe with her family. Her father is Dr. Malcolm Tolbert, professor at New Orleans Seminary.

Calvary Mission	11.56	Clarkdale	8.75
Mt Pleasant	3.50	Clarksdale	252.35
Panola		Oakhurst	55.05
Como	47.50	Riverside	21.00
Courland	5.00	Dundee	33.50
Crenshaw	14.70	Jonestown	24.00
Good Hope	17.79	Lyon	12.10
Hebron	30.50	Rena Lara
Liberty Hill	11.00	Tate	53.00
Peach Creek	33.45	Arkabutla	7.65
Pilgrim's Rest	6.00	Bett	33.00
Pope	28.25	Coldwater	26.00
Sardis	170.50	Evansville	16.00
QUITMAN		Hickory Grove	9.04
Beien	28.57	Looxahoma	26.45
Blue Lake	18.05	Mt Zion	10.00
Crowder	46.00	Strayhorn
Darling	25.00	Yalobusha	112.48
Lambert	23.00	Coffeenville	23.80
Marks		Oakland	65.55
First	64.74	Water Valley
Walnut	30.80
Riverside		Bolivar	DISTRICT 7

Speakers Announced For Home Mission Assemblies

ATLANTA (BP)—Speakers for home mission weeks at Southern Baptist Assemblies are Paul B. Leath of California for Glorieta and H. Franklin Paschall of Kentucky for Ridgecrest.

The announcement was made by L. O. Griffith of Atlanta, director of the division of education and promotion for the Home Mission Board.

The Home Mission weeks will be August 5-11 at Glorieta, N. M., and August 19-25 at Ridgecrest, N. C. The theme for both weeks is "Witnessing to our Dynamic Nation."

Leath is pastor of the First Baptist Church, Fresno, Calif.

Paschall, a native of Hazel, Ky., is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Nashville, Tennessee.

Glorieta

Leath will be joined at Glorieta by B. Gray Allison, professor of evangelism in New Orleans Seminary, as the Bible teacher. W. Hines Sims, secretary of the church music department of the Baptist Sunday School Board, will be the music director.

Ridgecrest

Jesse J. Northcutt will be the Bible teacher at Ridgecrest. He is dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Preaching at Southwestern Seminary. J. N. Mc-

1st, Canton, Calls Youth Director

Fred Womack, Junior ministerial student at Mississippi College, has begun his work as youth director of First Church of Canton.

Mr. Womack, a native of Magee, signed a football scholarship at the University of Mississippi. Upon entering the ministry, he transferred to Mississippi College in 1964. He will direct throughout the summer a planned program of youth activities including recreation, discussion groups, youth-led revival, fellowships, and other related events.

Rev. Johnny L. Taylor is pastor of First, Canton.

Wanted to purchase for Negro church. Used pews taken from some church. Call or write: H. C. McShan, Phone 653-7215, Schlater, Miss.

GOING TO CAMP or college? Mark your clothes. Rubber Stamp in-dexible Ink Pad made by DIXIE Rubber Stamp Co. 516 East Amite St. Dial 948-1851 Jackson, Miss.

Capital FLORAL COMPANY, INC.
Phone FL 5-2471
LAMAIR & ARITE
Progressive since 1887

DOES YOUR PIANO NEED TUNING, REGULATING OR REPAIRING BY A REGISTERED TECHNICIAN?

D. L. Atkinson, Indianola, Miss. Phone 1452

Mid-South Business College
A private college specializing in business training, under Christian principles.
219 Lamar Building
Meridian, Mississippi

HOLY LAND & EUROPE TOUR
ENGLAND, EGYPT, LEBANON, SYRIA, JORDAN, ISRAEL, GREECE, ITALY, SWITZERLAND, FRANCE.
22 DAYS. JET SERVICE. PAY LATER PLAN.
Depart Sept. 21, 1965. $1275.
Write Rev. John Davenport Jr., 126 Taylor St., Danville, Va., for brochure.

MISS. MILLWORK CO.
Manufacturers of Church Furniture Pews—Pulpit Sets
Lord's Supper Tables
Write or call for appointment to see samples
P. O. Box 143
Brookhaven, Miss.
Tel. 333-6331 in Brookhaven or 948-4665 in Jackson things go better with Coke

Jackson Coca Cola Bottling Co.

Fadden, minister of music and education of the Leewood Baptist Church, Greenville, S. C., will direct the music.

Laymen

Special conferences for Laymen will be held each morning by leadership of the Brotherhood Commission, and the men will be free to attend general program and mission conferences otherwise.

JAMES W. HATLEY, pastor of Beverly Hills (Calif.) Baptist Church, has been named Sunday School Board representative, effective July 23. Hatley will serve east of the Mississippi River, interpreting the work of the Sunday School Board mainly in pioneer areas. J. P. Edmunds is the Board's representative in the West. The work of the Board's two representatives in pioneer areas includes visits with state executive secretaries, other state workers, managers of Baptist Book Stores, associational missionaries, and church leaders to acquaint them with the Sunday School Board's programs.

Missionary Killed In Collision

Mrs. Frank T. N. Woodward, 70, emeritus missionary to China and Hawaii, was killed Monday afternoon, July 19, in Birmingham, Ala., when the car she was driving collided with a lumber truck. She was alone in her car when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Woodward and her husband had made Birmingham their home since October, 1963, when they returned to the mainland from Hawaii. They retired January 31, 1964.

The former Mabel Williams, of Maplesville, Ala., Mrs. Woodward received the bachelor of arts degree from Judson College, Marion, Ala., and the bachelor of missionary training degree from Woman's Missionary Union Training School (now merged with Southern Seminary).

She and Dr. Woodward were married in August, 1924, six weeks after their missionary appointment and three weeks before they sailed for China. Three years passed before they settled down in one place (Kweilin) long enough to unpack their wedding presents. Only six weeks later a mob invaded the Baptist mission compound, and they had to flee with their young children and the possessions they could hastily put in suitcases.

In following years they did evangelistic and education work in Kweilin, Kongmoon, and Tsangwu (formerly called Wuchow). Then in 1937, with Chinese fighting Japanese in the area, they had to flee Wuchow. As refugees in Hong Kong they received word that their home in Wuchow and the school where Mrs. Woodward had been principal had been bombed.

For the next few years, due to war, they were separated. Dr. Woodward serving in Canton (occupied by the Japanese in 1938), Mrs. Woodward in Hong Kong (a British colony, not attacked until December, 1941). She returned to the States early in 1942, he remained in China and was interned by the Japanese for nine months at the outbreak of World War II.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Woodward's survivors include three daughters.

Religious Ed Meeting Set

FORT WORTH (BP)—The annual Southwestern Baptist Religious Education Association meets here on the campus of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary August 24-28.

Sunday School Attendance

Training Union Attendance

JULY 25, 1965

Auburn (Lee)	125	68
Bethel (Cophah)	118	96
Brookhaven, 1st	718	198
Bruce, 1st	355	146
Crystal Springs, 1st	191	110
Florence, 1st	376	187
Goodwater (Simpson)	158	91
Grenada, 1st	364	182
Hattiesburg:
First	373	195
Central	267	153
Ridgecrest	102	74
38th Avenue	210	100
Jackson:
Broadmoor	1191	411
Woodville Heights	253	134
Robinson Street	267	117
First	1369	238
Parkhill	201	114
Magnolia Park	85	50
McDowell Road	220	126
Alta Woods	1034	312
Calvary	1260	424
Mission	66	41
Oak Forest	518	168
McLaurin Heights	257	153
Lakeview Mission	153	82
Crestwood	318	143
Colonial Heights	235	58
Daniel	559	180
West Jackson	417	194
Briarwood Drive	238	104
Hillcrest	529	229
Parkway	925	354
Forest Hill	198	76
Van Winkle	350	255
Woodland Hills	630	274
Southside	337	146
Mt. Creek, Rankin	71	46
Laurel:
Magnolia St.	441	206
Glade	197	109
First	481	159
Highland	451	151
Trinity	163	106
Bethlehem	204	106
Plainway	206	140
Lexington, 1st	217	88
Long Beach, 1st	441	108
Louisville:
East	125	80
Poplar Flat	150	76
Leon	190	72
McComb:
Locust St.	226	116
Navilla	220	101
South	225	111
Meridian:
State Boulevard	371	111
Fifteenth Avenue	192	111
Poplar Springs Dr.	502	200
Oakland Heights	292	100
Calvary	408	157
Main	257	127
Fewell Survey Miss	30	23
Pine Springs Miss	21	102
Eight Avenue	128	97
Russell	222	73
Morton, 1st	222	73
Pearson	148	71
Pearl	333	87
Petal-Harvey	323	87
Main	323	87
Memorial Dr. Miss.	140	58
Rosedale, 1st	80	35
Ruth	190	101
Sandersville	190	101
Springfield (Scott)	190	101
Starkville, 1st	814	350
Tupelo:
East Heights	357	131
Calvary	565	162
Vicksburg:
Bowmar Avenue	424	187
Trinity	183	89

JULY 18, 1965

Aberdeen, 1st	357	106
Amory, 1st	416	118
Auburn (Lee)	136	66
Booneville, 1st	394	164
Main	340	125
Crestwood	407	140
Bradford, 1st	172	79
Cleveland, Yale St.	207	126
Collins	713	213
Columbia, 1st	666	162
Columbus, Fairview	272	132
Crystal Springs, 1st	530	198
Forest	157	84
Goodwater (Simpson)	329	85
Greenwood, North	329	85
Grenada, 1st	329	85
Gulfport, Gulf Gardens	290	97
Gulfport, Grace Mem.	290	97
Main	41	13
Northward Chapel	150	67
Hattiesburg, Uni.	401	197
Houston, 1st	150	67
Main	85	57
Parway Chapel	282	124
Iuka	422	98
Kosciusko:
First	411	111
Main	11	75
Maple St.	159	63
Kosciusko, Parkway	237	114
Lexington, 1st	432	115
Long Beach, 1st	419	100
Main	33	15
Louisville, East	135	90
Ludlow	72	36
Lyon	224	72
Roundaway Miss.	215	132
McComb, Navilla	373	139
Meridian:
Calvary	315	111
Main	315	111
Fewell Survey Miss	37	28
Pine Springs Miss	21	102
State Boulevard	358	109
Eight Avenue	190	89
Fifteenth Avenue	502	200
Poplar Springs Drive	473	148
Westwood	183	124
New Albany:
Hillcrest	66	60
Northside	165	80
First	613	229
Pascagoula, 1st	663	213
Main	64	34
G. C. Nursing Home	12	27
Martin Bluff	254	167
Picayune, 1st	558	109
Main	30	109
Poplar Flat (Winston)	131	109
Pontotoc, 1st	215	78
Pontotoc, West Hts.	215	68
Quitman, 1st	314	98
Ripley, 1st	314	98
Rosedale, 1st	161	66
Ruth	65	34
Starkville, 1st	885	312
Tupelo:
First	479	164
East Heights	306	113
Calvary	506	211
West Point, 1st	460	190

JULY 18, 1965

Aberdeen, 1st	357	106
Amory, 1st	416	118
Auburn (Lee)	136	66
Booneville, 1st	394	164
Main	340	125
Crestwood	407	140
Bradford, 1st	172	79
Cleveland, Yale St.	207	126
Collins	713	213
Columbia, 1st	666	162
Columbus, Fairview	272	132
Crystal Springs, 1st	530	198
Forest	157	84
Goodwater (Simpson)	329	85
Greenwood, North	329	85
Grenada, 1st	329	85
Gulfport, Gulf Gardens	290	97
Gulfport, Grace Mem.	290	97
Main	41	13
Northward Chapel	150	67
Hattiesburg, Uni.	401	197
Houston, 1st	150	67
Main	85	57
Parway Chapel	282	124
Iuka	422	98
Kosciusko:
First	411	111
Main	11	75
Maple St.	159	63
Kosciusko, Parkway	237	114
Lexington, 1st	432	115
Long Beach, 1st	419	100
Main	33	15
Louisville, East	135	90
Ludlow	72	36
Lyon	224	72
Roundaway Miss.	215	132
McComb, Navilla	373	139
Meridian:
Calvary	315	111
Main	315	111
Fewell Survey Miss	37	28
Pine Springs Miss	21	102
State Boulevard	358	109
Eight Avenue	190	89
Fifteenth Avenue	502	200
Poplar Springs Drive	473	148
Westwood	183	124
New Albany:
Hillcrest	66	60
Northside	165	80
First	613	229
Pascagoula, 1st	663	213
Main	64	34
G. C. Nursing Home	12	27
Martin Bluff	254	167
Picayune, 1st	558	109
Main	30	109
Poplar Flat (Winston)	131	109
Pontotoc, 1st	215	78
Pontotoc, West Hts.	215	68
Quitman, 1st	314	98
Ripley, 1st	314	98
Rosedale, 1st	161	66
Ruth	65	34
Starkville, 1st	885	312
Tupelo:
First	479	164
East Heights	306	113
Calvary	506	211
West Point, 1st	460	190

BMC Appoints New P.E. Director

Miss Johnnie Armstrong, for more than ten years Director of the Department of Physical Education at Blue Mountain College, will enter the University of Indiana in September, to begin work on her doctorate in physical education.

Succeeding Miss Armstrong at Blue Mountain College, as Director of Physical Education, is Miss Janice Bottom, Knoxville, Tennessee, now serving on the staff of Camp Crestridge for Baptist Girls, Ridgecrest, North Carolina.

Miss Bottom, a native of Columbus, Georgia, holds her bachelor's degree from Troy State College, in Alabama. She holds her Master of Science degree from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

She has served as playground co-director at Belle Glade, Florida and taught physical education for two years at Belle Glade, Florida High School.

Correcting faults is like a necktie—easier to do on yourself than on anyone else.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON—Growth Through Fellowship

By Clifton J. Allen

Romans 14:1 John 1

The right kind of Christian fellowship is a supreme factor in Christian growth. It both contributes to growth and reveals growth. The New Testament teaches that a church is a fellowship. It teaches also that Christians, due to their natural weakness and sinful inclinations, are subject to disruption in fellowship and may suffer grave spiritual danger through breaches in fellowship. The two passages in our larger Bible lesson are relevant at this point. Paul wrote to the Roman Christians and admonished them about how to treat fellow believers whose faith was weak or immature, especially those with conscientious scruples about eating meats...and observing special days. From 1 John we learn that Christian love is a test of Christian faith. Persons in right relationships with God will be in right relations with other believers.

The Lesson Explained

STOP JUDGING ONE ANOTHER (vv. 13-15)

A real problem in fellowship existed among the Christians in Rome. Some of them had conscientious scruples about eating meats ceremonially unclean meats which had been offered to idols. Paul urged the stronger Christians, those more mature in faith, not to abuse their freedom by hurting others—not to insist on the right to eat meats if such would be a stumbling block to a person of immature faith. Paul knew that the sinner of eating meat was not inherently wrong but wrong only to the person who had conscientious scruples about eating such meat. The abuse of freedom about this matter, in that it caused offense to others, was a violation of Christian love.

Criticizing and sitting in judgment on other persons, even though it be directed toward conscientious scruples about things of little consequence, shows that persons are really themselves very immature. They are destroying both persons and fellowship and paralyzing their own spiritual development. A captious, critical attitude creates strife, expresses pride, and literally dries up the spirit of love. If a church is what it ought to be, it is a fellowship in which the stronger help the weak and all grow in mutual reinforcement of one another.

FOLLOW AFTER

PEACE (vv. 16-19)

Christians ought so to conduct themselves that their Christian liberty will not be spoken of as evil. In this connection, Paul declared a great truth about the kingdom of God. It is much more than rules about meat and drink; it is doing right, living at peace, and finding joy in the Holy Spirit. It involves knowing Christ in redemption and partaking of his spirit of love, which leads to the practice of love in relationships with others. The Christian is expected to live in a way that makes his influence a source of strength and inspiration for others, never a stumbling block to them. This kind of consideration for others makes one pleasing to God and to other persons. It is therefore the obligation to keep on pursuing peace and to keep on doing that which will build up other persons in their faith.

PRACTICE SELF-DENIAL (vv. 20-21)

It is gross wickedness to hinder or destroy the work of God, that is, to follow any course of conduct that will hinder God's work of grace in some other person. It would be better to give up meat forever—or some personal habit—than to hinder God's work of grace in another person's life. Of course, each person is directly responsible to God for himself. Whether a course of conduct is right or wrong must include the factor of influence over other persons. One must be sure that his own conscience is clear and that his influence over other persons is morally reinforcing. The Christian may well practice self-denial for the sake of others: "It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak." Intoxicating drink now—as it was in Rome—even with moderation, can never be justified, because it has a damaging influence on others.

Truths to Live By

Interpersonal relations test Christian growth.—How well do we get along with other persons? The answer reveals the level of our Christian growth. For example, if there is nagging, pouting, and confusion in a professedly Christian home, this means that those who are Christians in the family have grown little in terms of kindness, forgiveness, and self-control. If a church is marked by bickering, factions, striving for control, or cold indifference toward fellow members in the congregation, this means that the members have learned almost nothing of the Christian graces of forbearance, humility, compassion, and love. If Christians in their social and work relationships become addicted to criticism, accusation, resentment, jealousy, and malice, this means that they are still babies in terms of emotional maturity. An important test of Christian growth is a determination to manifest love toward other persons regardless of their attitude, their race, their social position, or anything else.

We grow as we help other persons to grow.—As Christians work together in the activities of churches, as they join in intercessory prayer, as they try to help one another in sorrow and misfortune, and, more particularly, as they try to restore and rehabilitate some fellow Christian who has been overtaken by a severe temptation or a besetting moral weakness, they experience a real maturing in understanding and faith and purpose and love. Growth follows the expenditure of energy and concern in another person's behalf. Growth results by sharing one another's burdens and trying to help one another face life with courage and with confidence in Christ.

Cultivating fellowship is a personal responsibility.—Each Christian has a sacred duty at this point. In a church, fellowship is not the sole prerogative of pastor or deacons or chosen leaders. Each member either hinders the spirit of fellowship or contributes to its development. Any Christian can be a dynamic factor in contributing to a spirit of friendliness, to a sensitive awareness of the needs of other persons, to a prayerful concern for the unifying and sanctifying presence of the Holy Spirit, and to the practice of love becoming to the children of God.

Christianity has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found difficult and not tried.

JERRY NEELY has resigned as Minister of Music and youth of the First Church, Indianola to accept the same position at the First Church, West Point. He is a graduate of Mississippi College and New Orleans Seminary. Mr. Neely is married to the former Sue Neal of Eupora.

State Woman Is Named To N. O. Develop't Group

NEW ORLEANS—Mrs. Dayton C. Simmons of Jackson has been named to the Board of Development of New Orleans Seminary here.

New Brotherhood Books Go To Seven State Churches

Seven Baptist churches in Mississippi have taken advantage of a free Brotherhood book offer during May by organizing new church libraries. As an encouragement to churches to start new libraries, the Brotherhood Commission offers 11 free books on Brotherhood and Royal Ambassador work.

They are The Church Brotherhood Guidebook, The Crusader Counselor's Guide, The Pioneer Counselor's

Guide, The Ambassador Counselor's Guide, The Page Manual, The Squire Manual, The Knight Manual, The Pioneer Manual, The Ambassador and His Church, Ambassadors and World Missions, and Ambassadors and Christian Citizenship.

Many church libraries feature the books at Brotherhood and Royal Ambassador chapter meetings in calling attention to the new library facilities.

The books may be used by church leaders to introduce men and boys to Brotherhood and Royal Ambassador work. 269 In SBC

For more detailed assistance, church leaders should consult their state Brotherhood departments.

About 269 church libraries were started in the Southern Baptist Convention in May.

Mississippi churches include Berea of Dundee, Lake Washington of Glen Allan, Mt. Olive of Okolona, Temple of Petal, Southaven of Southaven, Little Texas of Tunicia, and Bethel of Water Valley.

SUE McCLOSKEY of Tampa, Florida, and recent graduate of New Orleans Seminary, has been named to a key position with the Maryland Baptist Woman's Missionary Union. With headquarters in Baltimore, Miss McCloskey will direct the activities over the state of the Girls' Auxiliary and Sunbeam Band organizations. At William Carey College, where Miss McCloskey graduated in 1963, she was a music education major and earned a minor in piano.

First Doctorate In Music Given By Southwestern

FORT WORTH (BP) — Southwestern Seminary here awarded its first Doctor of Church Music Degree during 1965 summer commencement exercises.

The degree was presented to Robert Foster Wright, instructor of music at East Tex-

JACK R. BAGWELL joined the staff of the Sunday School Board's church architecture department July 15 as an architectural consultant. Since 1961 Bagwell has been secretary of the church building planning department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Raleigh.

Autrey Resumes Preaching Dates

ATLANTA (BP)—C. E. Autrey of Atlanta, director of the Division of Evangelism for the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, announced he was resuming August 1 his preaching schedule after nearly a month's inactivity.

Autrey's physician prescribed a month without preaching when extreme fatigue sent him to the hospital for three days of tests the week of July 5.

The evangelist said he had spent the time in his office here catching up on writing, studying and organizational matters.

as Baptist College, Marshall, Tex. his was one of 114 degrees including eight doctorates presented during the summer commencement.

June Report Shows 148 New Libraries

NASHVILLE—Riding the good ship Church Library Emphasis launched in April is the June report of newly registered libraries from the Sunday School Board's church library department.

Churches in 27 states, Canada and Japan registered 148 libraries, bringing the total to 13,203.

North Carolina was first with 29 new libraries. Newcomers to the list of states with high monthly registrations are New Mexico in second place with 20 and Illinois third with 14.

State	Church	Pastor & Address	Librarian & Address
MISSISSIPPI:
Canton	First Good Hope	Johnny L. Taylor, Canton	Mrs. Edward Henry, Canton
Clinton	Simmons Memorial	Francis Vriesen, Clinton
Flora	Mount Zion	Hubert Ledlow, Flora
Independence	Evergreen	Billy Smith, Independence
Shubuta	Pleasant Grove		Mrs. Max Graham, Rt. 3, Coldwater
Shubuta			Jackie Huddleston, Route 1
			Mrs. Ulysses Cooley, Route 1

Shaw Church Breaks Ground For Education Building

The above scene was a part in the ground breaking ceremony for a new educational Building of Shaw Church. Front from left: Frank Gaither, Chairman of Building Committee; Vernon Pleasant and Barbara Winters, youngest active members; Mrs. Ida Moore, oldest active member, and Rev. J. I. Jacobs, pastor. Back, from left, remaining Building Committee members, James Paul Robinson, Andy Meier, Davis Burns, C. A. Washington, and Cecil Kelly.

Construction has begun on the structure containing 5300 square feet, directly behind the present church. It will house two Nursery departments; a Beginner department; Primary department; Junior department; Intermediate and Young People's department; and the Adult department of six classrooms with large assembly room. Also included are restrooms, church office, pastor's study, and large kitchen.

The building, constructed of concrete block with brick veneer, was drawn by architects Lee and Brumfield, of Jackson.

Pump Electrocutes Student Pastor

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (BP) —James E. Sands, 30, pastor of the Sycamore Hills Baptist Chapel here, was electrocuted while attempting to pump water from the chapel basement with an electrical-driven pump.

The basement had become flooded from a heavy rainstorm which had broken some basement windows allowing the water to surge into the basement. Several members of the chapel had worked late the previous night pumping about 18 inches of water from the basement.

MELVIN G. ALFORD, Brookhaven, will this fall begin his services as assistant professor of music, teaching piano primarily. Mr. Alford holds his Bachelor of Music degree from Southeastern Louisiana College, and his Master of Music degree from the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester. He was a student of Orazio Frugoni and Jose Chanis, at Eastman. Mr. Alford is a native Mississippian.

WMU Office Has New Staffer

BIRMINGHAM (BP)—Miss Betty Joy Corum has joined the staff of Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention.

Miss Corum will serve as director of the editorial services department, a position created here in a recent staff reorganization, Miss Alma Hunt, Birmingham, executive secretary, reported.

Prior to coming to Woman's Missionary Union Miss Corum was editor of Intermediate Training Union materials for the SBC Sunday School Board, Nashville. She has also served as director of Junior-Intermediate field services of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, and as education director, Robertsville Baptist Church, Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Miss Hunt also reported a reorganization of the promotion division and the reassignment of other staff members. The work of the promotion division has been divided into two departments — Field Services and Editorial Services. Mrs. R. L. Mathis is director of the division.

REVIVAL DATES

Terry Church, Terry: August 1-7; Rev. A. L. Courtney Jr., pastor and evangelist; Major McDaniel, First, Natchez, in charge of music; services daily at 7:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Interstate, Shaw: August 1-6, Rev. Judson Glenn, pastor of Providence, Cleveland, evangelist; Freddie Dean, song leader; Miss Linda Strawbridge, pianist; services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Ray Garrison, pastor.

First Church, Rolling Fork: youth revival, August 8-14; Rev. Altus Newell, preacher; Jimmy Currell, song leader; Shirley Drake, pianist (revival team all from Mississippi College); Rev. R. E. Kyzar, pastor.

Clear Creek (Lafayette): August 8-13; Rev. Barney Walker, Sr., evangelist; Don Walker, in charge of music; Rev. James W. Carpenter, pastor.

Goodwater Church, Magee: August 1-8; Sunday services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Steve McKinley, Pass Christian, evangelist; Paul Clark, minister of music and youth at Goodwater, song leader; Rev. Wesley G. Ellis, pastor.

Hillsboro: August 1-6; Rev. Tom Rayburn, pastor, Second Avenue Church, Laurel, evangelist; Dr. John E. Barrow, pastor and song leader.

Oak Grove Church (Yazoo): August 1-6; services each evening at 7:30; Rev. James Pugh, Ebenezer Church, Ebenezer, evangelist; Rev. Clyde E. Pullen, pastor. (On Sunday, August 1, the church will serve dinner on the ground, followed by an afternoon service.)

Antioch (Jeff Davis): August 1-6; Foy E. Killingsworth, pastor, Macedonia Church, Simpson County, evangelist; Mrs. Wiley Coulter, song director; Mrs. Alice Dewitt, pianist; services at 8:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Earl E. Brown, pastor.

Concord (Yazoo): August 1-6; Rev. H. H. Ward (pictured), Kosciusko, evangelist; B. B. Neely, music director; Ann S. Scarborough, pianist; Sunday services 11 a. m. with dinner on the grounds and afternoon services at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. H. C. Adams, pastor.

Flowood Church: August 1-6; weekday services at 9 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Glenn Morgan, East Main Church, El Dorado, Arkansas, evangelist; Chastaine Flynt, music director; Rev. A. G. Gray, pastor.

Zion (Pontotoc): August 1-6; Rev. Donnie Stewart, Hebron Church, Sardis, evangelist; Rev. Robert Jackson, pastor, and music leader.

Mt. Olive (Prentiss): August 1-8; Rev. H. V. Hardin, Siloam Church, York, Ala., evangelist; R. L. Curbow, pastor; services daily at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Rena Lara Church: August 1-6; Rev. Carmon Savell, pastor of Pace Church, evangelist; Hermon Furniss, song leader; Marie Eubanks, pianist; Rev. Billy J. Beckett, pastor; services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Bethsaida (Montgomery): August 1-6; youth-led revival; services at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Cornell Daughtry, North Wipona, evangelist; Ozell Rosamond, youth pastor; Jimmie Dale Boyd, music director; Martha Kay McClurg, pianist; Rev. W. E. Palmer, pastor.

Carmel, Monticello: August 1-8; two services daily at 9 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Robert Perry, Emmanuel Church, Greenville, Evangelist; Wendell Russell, music director; Mrs. Phil J. Walker, organist; Mary Ida Mitchell, pianist; Rev. Phil J. Walker, pastor.

Bethel (Rankin): August 1-6; lunch at the church on the opening Sunday; services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Martin Williams, pastor of Bethlehem Church, Scott County, evangelist; Rev. W. C. McGee, pastor; local talent in charge of music.

Little Bahala (Lincoln): August 8-13; Rev. Jim Terpo, associational missionary, Panola County, evangelist; morning and evening services; Rev. Robert Carr, pastor.

First Church, Pontotoc: August 1-8; Dr. David Q. Byrd, (pictured) pastor of West Jackson Church, Jackson, Tennessee, and a native of Mississippi, evangelist; George McGehee, choir director of the church, song leader; Dr. W. Levon Moore, pastor.

New Zion (Lawrence): July 25 — August 1; Rev. Pat Nowell, pastor of Halbert Heights Church, Brookhaven, evangelist; Mrs. Pat Nowell, chalk artist; Rev. Gary Fagan, pastor; services at 10:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Holly (Alcorn): August 1-7; services daily at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Horace Thomas, pastor, Belden Church, evangelist; Rev. M. L. Swinney, pastor.

County Line Church (Copiah): August 1-6; dinner on the grounds August 1; weekday services at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. Howard McLeMure, pastor; Rev. S. R. Pridgen, Indian Springs Church, Laurel, evangelist.

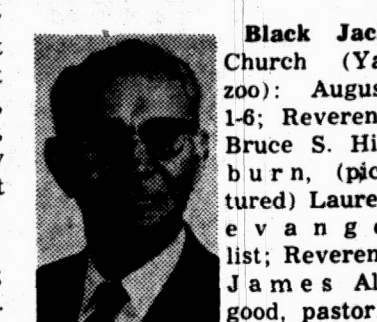

Parkhill, Jackson: Youth Revival, August 1-7; James Whittington, evangelist; Jerry Lyall, youth evangelist; Tommy Young, youth song director; Irene Young, organist; Carolyn Whittington, pianist; services at 10:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. James Gipson, pastor.

Wallerville (Union County): August 2-8; Rev. James E. Greene, pastor, Sorgho Church, Sorgho, Kentucky, evangelist; Royce Blackmon, minister of music and education, First Church, New Albany, song leader; Rev. Jim Nunnelee, pastor.

Bethel (Copiah): August 1-6; services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Rev. C. W. Thompson, pastor, First Church, Ellisville, evangelist; Glenda Beasley, pianist; Rev. George E. Meadows, pastor; lunch will be spread on the church grounds Sunday, August 1.

Harmony (Winston): August 1-6; Rev. Joe H. Royalty, Clinton Boulevard Church, Jackson, evangelist; Mose Dangerfield, music and education director, First Church, Camden, S. C., in charge of music; Rev. W. C. Smith, pastor; services at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Morgan Chapel, Sturgis: August 1-6; services at 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Rev. Bill Lassett, Laurel and Mississippi State University, evangelist; Rev. Jimmie Morris, pastor.

Black Jack Church (Yazoo): August 1-6; Reverend Bruce S. Hillburn, (pictured) Laurel, evangelist; Reverend James Allgood, pastor.

Jayess (Lawrence): August 1-6; Sunday services at 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m., with dinner at the church; weekday services at 10 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Rev. Winfred Lowery, pastor, Tangipahoa Church, Pike County, evangelist; Otha Cothern and Mrs. Ben H. Davis, song leaders; Shirley Alexander, pianist; Rev. Ben H. Davis, pastor.

Crooked Creek (Lawrence): August 1-6; Robert L. Dunn, pastor, First Church of Tillman's Corner, Mobile, Ala., evangelist; Mrs. Lavon Sills, in charge of music; services at 10:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m.; Rev. Bob Yates, pastor.

ON THE PICTURE from left to right are Shelby Price, Chairman of the Preparation Committee, Rev. C. W. Thompson, pastor, Mrs. C. W. Thompson, and J. B. Young, who was Chairman of the Pulpit Committee and in behalf of the church presented the silver service.

FIRST CHURCH, ELLISVILLE, BURNS NOTE, CELEBRATES PASTOR'S 11TH ANNIVERSARY

Sunday, July 11, First Church, Ellisville, burned a note which marked the cancellation of all indebtedness for building and equipment. H. L. Strickland, chairman of deacons, related some accomplishments of the church and the note was burned by Jeff Walters, S. C. Wallace, H. A. Dunahoo, Trustees who signed the note, and Harold Hardee, Assistant Treasurer. Dr. B. Frank Smith brought the message.

At the close of the service, J. B. Young, in behalf of the church, presented Pastor and Mrs. C. W. Thompson a silver service, celebrating their eleventh anniversary with the church.

During these eleven years, the church has had total additions of 829, contributions $597,639.52, with $80,000 for missions. A church secretary and minister of music have been employed and a committee has been appointed to secure an educational director.

Names In The News

Dr. Henry Eason, Professor of Drama at Houston Baptist College, has been called as interim pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Billings, Montana. Dr. Eason left Houston July 19 to assume his duties at Emmanuel Church on July 25. He will return to Houston Baptist College for the beginning of the fall semester in September.

Rev. and Mrs. G. Clayton Bond, missionaries to Togo, expect to arrive August 4 for furlough in the States. They may be addressed at 1051 E. Kyle Rd., Clute, Tex. He is a native of Vernon Parish, La.; she, the former Helen Terry, was born in Stearns, Ky., and grew up in Port Sulphur, La.

Airman First Class David H. Nichols, the son of Dr.

and Mrs. Buford L. Nichols, missionaries to Indonesia, married Jean Anne Ogilvie on May 6 in the U. S. Air Force Chapel, Weisbaden, Germany. His parents, now on furlough, may be addressed at 1801 S. Ninth St., Waco, Tex. They are natives of Texas, he of Sabine County and she, the former Mary Frances Hodges of Junction.

Rev. Robert Ragland has resigned as pastor of Rock Branch Church, Union, and has accepted the call to Forkland Church, Washington Association, where he will assume his duties on August 1. Mr. Ragland, a graduate of Clarke College, was formerly pastor of Alexander Memorial Church, James.

Rev. Clyde E. Pullen is the new pastor of Oak Grove Church, Yazoo County, near Phoenix. Serving in his first pastorate, Mr. Pullen assumed his duties about one month ago.

Rev. and Mrs. Lewis I. Myers, Jr., missionaries, who have been in the States on furlough, were scheduled to leave July 7 for Vietnam. They may be addressed at Box 107, Saigon, Vietnam. Born in Chalybeate, Miss., he grew up in Skene, Miss.; she, the former Toni Alexander, is a native of Boyle, Miss.

Rev. W. L. Gardner has resigned as pastor of the Oak Grove Church, Desoto County, and has moved to another state.

UNIVERSAL STUDIOS TO BE VISITED BY 'MASTERCONTROL'

FORT WORTH, TEX. — A fascinating tour through the movie and television set lot at Universal Pictures, Los Angeles, Calif. will be a highlight of Southern Baptists' international variety radio program, "MasterControl", Sunday, August 1.

Also featured will be World War II hero, Gen. Jimmy Doolittle, who led the first carrier-based bombing mission on Japan.

As if that were not enough, "MasterControl" will add two other interesting quests along with some delightful music sure to please every listener.

Picture a South Sea Island beach joined on one side by an army fort and a western town on the other. These are the sets used for movies and television at Universal Pictures and will be described by guide Tom Brann.